

2010-02-01 - Monday

07:00 Bollywood/Hollywood

Indian romance from 2002 with Rahul Khanna, Lisa Ray, Jessica Paré. Director: Deepa Mehta. (120) This film is set in Toronto, Canada and revolves around Rahul Seth, a young dot.com millionaire, and his unconventional relationship with the beautiful and wild Sue Singh. While Rahul is the scion of the typically successful NRI family, Sue is the daughter of a humble car mechanic and is one of the highest paid escort girls in Toronto.

09:00 Water

Indian drama from 2005 with Lisa Ray, John Abraham, "Sarala ". Director: Deepa Mehta. (117) Set in 1930's India where eight-year-old Chuyia becomes a widow despite her young age and is therefore by tradition condemned to retire to a home, rejected by society and forbidden to marry again. As Chuyia bides her time among other widows, she meets the beautiful Kalyani who's falling in love with an educated man who's willing to challenge tradition.

11:00 The Republic of Love

Canadian comedy from 2003 with Bruce Greenwood, Emilia Fox, Claire Bloom. Director: Deepa Mehta. (92) This warm-hearted love story revolves around Fay, a girl in her thirties who aspires to have the same rock solid relationship she believes her parents have. She meets and falls for Tom, a radio talk show host, but when her parents' marriage suddenly falls apart, her own relationship with Tom is also thrown into crisis. Based on the novel by Carol Shields.

13:00 Glengarry Glen Ross

American drama from 1992 with Jack Lemmon, Al Pacino, Ed Harris. Director: James Foley. (96) A group of desperate real estate agents enter a sales contest where the losers will be sacked. At first, they keep on with their dull routines, working their old leads as usual, until one of them hatches a plan to break into the office, steal the leads and sell them to a rival. Awarded Best Actor (Jack Lemmon) at the Venice Film Festival.

15:00 Chop Shop

American drama from 2007 with Alejandro Polanco, Isamar Gonzales, Ahmad Razvi. Director: Ramin Bahrani. (84) This film follows the fortunes of Alejandro, a tough and ambitious Latino street orphan who lives and works in an auto-body repair shop in a sprawling junkyard on the outskirts of Queens, New York. Winner of the Someone to Watch Award at the Independent Spirit Awards.

17:00 Capturing the Friedmans

American documentary from 2003 with Arnold Friedman, Elaine Friedman, David Friedman. Director: Andrew Jarecki. (103) In November 1987, family father Arnold Friedman was, alongside his eldest son Jesse, accused of multiple counts of child molestation. Filmmaker Andrew Jarecki was given access to the Friedman's home videos which resulted in this strong portrayal of a family's struggle to hold themselves together in the wake of the unthinkable. Winner of the Grand Jury Prize at the Sundance Film Festival

19:00 Partner(s)

American comedy from 2005 with Jay Harrington, Julie Bowen, Brooke Langton. Director: Dave Diamond. (91) Dave is a lawyer who gets a chance to impress the senior partners in his firm when he is given the case of a crucial client. Soon however, Dave learns that this particular client has chosen him because he thinks that Dave is gay. In his attempt to play along with the whole thing, Dave finds it difficult to keep his heterosexual life separated from his professional façade.

21:00 The Trench

British drama from 1999 with Paul Nicholls, Daniel Craig, Tam Williams. Director: William Boyd. (105) Set in the 48 hours leading up to the Battle of the Somme in July 1916 as a group of British soldiers prepare to rush the German army. One of these young men is 17 year old Billy, who only enlisted to be with his beloved brother Eddie, and just like the rest of the group, the two brothers use any means necessary to distract themselves from the horror that awaits them.

23:00 Dumplings

Chinese comedy from 2004 with Ling Bai, Pauline Lau, Tony Leung Ka Fai. Director: Fruit Chan. (86) Mrs Lee, an aging actress, contacts a chef who is said to possess a secret recipe for dumplings that will restore one's youthful beauty. She soon learns that in order to achieve the magic effect, pork must be replaced by the meat of aborted fetuses and, with that in mind, Mrs. Lee begins creating an even more potent formula which finally gives her the results she has been longing for... along with some rather unusual side effects.

01:00 The Center of the World

American drama from 2001 with Peter Sarsgaard, Molly Parker, Shane Edelman. Director: Wayne Wang. (84) Richard, a dot-com millionaire who feels cut-off from the outside world, offers a lap dancer $10,000 to spend three nights with him in Vegas. She accepts his offer with a list of rules: no kissing on the mouth, no penetration, and each will stay in separate bedrooms and only convene during the hours of 10 p.m. and 2 a.m.

03:00 Princesas

Spanish drama from 2005 with Candela Peña, Micaela Nevárez, Mariana Cordero. Director: Fernando León de Aranoa. (120) Caye is a prostitute whose middle-class parents remain happily unaware of how their daughter makes her living and, just like her fellow prostitutes, Caye curses the increasing numbers of cheaper immigrant prostitutes on the streets. One day however, she meets Zule who is just such a woman and the two develop a friendship which soon prompts Caye to reevaluate her life.

05:00 The Last Kiss

Italian romance from 2001 with Stefano Accorsi, Giovanna Mezzogiorno, Stefania Sandrelli. Director: Gabriele Muccino. (115) Carlos is a man in his late twenties who, when his girlfriend announces she's pregnant, realises he's about to cross the final threshold into adulthood. In a last ditch attempt not to grow up, Carlos strikes up a fling with an eighteen year-old girl he meets at a wedding but the affair soon turns serious and threatens to damage his relationship with the woman he loves. Winner of the Audience Award at the Sundance Film Festival.

2010-02-02 - Tuesday

07:00 Partner(s)

American comedy from 2005 with Jay Harrington, Julie Bowen, Brooke Langton. Director: Dave Diamond. (91) Dave is a lawyer who gets a chance to impress the senior partners in his firm when he is given the case of a crucial client. Soon however, Dave learns that this particular client has chosen him because he thinks that Dave is gay. In his attempt to play along with the whole thing, Dave finds it difficult to keep his heterosexual life separated from his professional façade.

09:00 Capturing the Friedmans

American documentary from 2003 with Arnold Friedman, Elaine Friedman, David Friedman. Director: Andrew Jarecki. (103) In November 1987, family father Arnold Friedman was, alongside his eldest son Jesse, accused of multiple counts of child molestation. Filmmaker Andrew Jarecki was given access to the Friedman's home videos which resulted in this strong portrayal of a family's struggle to hold themselves together in the wake of the unthinkable. Winner of the Grand Jury Prize at the Sundance Film Festival

11:00 Princesas

Spanish drama from 2005 with Candela Peña, Micaela Nevárez, Mariana Cordero. Director: Fernando León de Aranoa. (120) Caye is a prostitute whose middle-class parents remain happily unaware of how their daughter makes her living and, just like her fellow prostitutes, Caye curses the increasing numbers of cheaper immigrant prostitutes on the streets. One day however, she meets Zule who is just such a woman and the two develop a friendship which soon prompts Caye to reevaluate her life.

13:00 The Last Kiss

Italian romance from 2001 with Stefano Accorsi, Giovanna Mezzogiorno, Stefania Sandrelli. Director: Gabriele Muccino. (115) Carlos is a man in his late twenties who, when his girlfriend announces she's pregnant, realises he's about to cross the final threshold into adulthood. In a last ditch attempt not to grow up, Carlos strikes up a fling with an eighteen year-old girl he meets at a wedding but the affair soon turns serious and threatens to damage his relationship with the woman he loves. Winner of the Audience Award at the Sundance Film Festival.

15:00 Partner(s)

American comedy from 2005 with Jay Harrington, Julie Bowen, Brooke Langton. Director: Dave Diamond. (91) Dave is a lawyer who gets a chance to impress the senior partners in his firm when he is given the case of a crucial client. Soon however, Dave learns that this particular client has chosen him because he thinks that Dave is gay. In his attempt to play along with the whole thing, Dave finds it difficult to keep his heterosexual life separated from his professional façade.

17:00 I Can See It in Your Eyes

Italian drama from 2004 with Stefania Sandrelli, Teresa Saponangelo, Sergio Albelli. Director: Valia Santella. (82) Life is difficult for Chiara, a divorced woman living in Rome; she is lonely, her six year old daughter is chronically ill and her ex-husband is about to have a child with his new lover. On top of that, her flamboyant mother Margherita comes to visit and the relationship between the two is tested.

19:00 Mulholland Drive

American drama from 2001 with Naomi Watts, Laura Harring, Justin Theroux. Director: David Lynch. (140) A beautiful woman is struck by amnesia after a brutal car accident on Mulholland Drive and wanders into a stranger's apartment downtown. Her story coincidentally intertwines with Betty's, a bright-eyed young woman in town for an audition and the two women are pulled into a psychotic illusion in the city of dreams. Awarded Best Director at the Cannes Film Festival and Best Editing at the BAFTA Film Awards.

21:30 The Center of the World

American drama from 2001 with Peter Sarsgaard, Molly Parker, Shane Edelman. Director: Wayne Wang. (84) Richard, a dot-com millionaire who feels cut-off from the outside world, offers a lap dancer $10,000 to spend three nights with him in Vegas. She accepts his offer with a list of rules: no kissing on the mouth, no penetration, and each will stay in separate bedrooms and only convene during the hours of 10 p.m. and 2 a.m.

23:00 A Day Without a Mexican

American comedy from 2004 with Caroline Aron, Yareli Arizmendi, John Getz. Director: Sergio Arau. (97) In this controversial mockumentary, all California based Mexicans, who represent a third of the state's population, inexplicably disappears and before long the lack of these Latino maids, construction workers, policemen, teachers etc, lead to a social, political and economic disaster which threatens the whole concept of the "Californian Dream".

01:00 The Trench

British drama from 1999 with Paul Nicholls, Daniel Craig, Tam Williams. Director: William Boyd. (105) Set in the 48 hours leading up to the Battle of the Somme in July 1916 as a group of British soldiers prepare to rush the German army. One of these young men is 17 year old Billy, who only enlisted to be with his beloved brother Eddie, and just like the rest of the group, the two brothers use any means necessary to distract themselves from the horror that awaits them.

03:00 Summer Rain

Spanish drama from 2006 with Alberto Amarilla, María Ruiz, Félix Gómez. Director: Antonio Banderas. (118) Set in late 70's Malaga where 18 year old Miguelito Dávila is released from hospital with one less kidney but inspired by a fellow patient to become a poet. Over the coming summer Miguelito and his friends explore love, sex and friendship along the path to adulthood, but it's a rough road and every summer has its rainy day. Awarded at the Berlin International Film Festival.

05:00 Party Monster

American comedy from 2003. Director: Fenton Bailey. (94) Michael and James are two mis-matched kids who meet in early 1990's New York and form a friendship that changes their lives forever. James initiates Michael into New York's club life who soon attracts others of his own kind and through him, these lost souls are given new fabulous Club Kid identities.

2010-02-03 - Wednesday

07:00 Mulholland Drive

American drama from 2001 with Naomi Watts, Laura Harring, Justin Theroux. Director: David Lynch. (140) A beautiful woman is struck by amnesia after a brutal car accident on Mulholland Drive and wanders into a stranger's apartment downtown. Her story coincidentally intertwines with Betty's, a bright-eyed young woman in town for an audition and the two women are pulled into a psychotic illusion in the city of dreams. Awarded Best Director at the Cannes Film Festival and Best Editing at the BAFTA Film Awards.

09:30 I Can See It in Your Eyes

Italian drama from 2004 with Stefania Sandrelli, Teresa Saponangelo, Sergio Albelli. Director: Valia Santella. (82) Life is difficult for Chiara, a divorced woman living in Rome; she is lonely, her six year old daughter is chronically ill and her ex-husband is about to have a child with his new lover. On top of that, her flamboyant mother Margherita comes to visit and the relationship between the two is tested.

11:00 Summer Rain

Spanish drama from 2006 with Alberto Amarilla, María Ruiz, Félix Gómez. Director: Antonio Banderas. (118) Set in late 70's Malaga where 18 year old Miguelito Dávila is released from hospital with one less kidney but inspired by a fellow patient to become a poet. Over the coming summer Miguelito and his friends explore love, sex and friendship along the path to adulthood, but it's a rough road and every summer has its rainy day. Awarded at the Berlin International Film Festival.

13:00 A Day Without a Mexican

American comedy from 2004 with Caroline Aron, Yareli Arizmendi, John Getz. Director: Sergio Arau. (97) In this controversial mockumentary, all California based Mexicans, who represent a third of the state's population, inexplicably disappears and before long the lack of these Latino maids, construction workers, policemen, teachers etc, lead to a social, political and economic disaster which threatens the whole concept of the "Californian Dream".

15:00 Party Monster

American comedy from 2003. Director: Fenton Bailey. (94) Michael and James are two mis-matched kids who meet in early 1990's New York and form a friendship that changes their lives forever. James initiates Michael into New York's club life who soon attracts others of his own kind and through him, these lost souls are given new fabulous Club Kid identities.

17:00 Chronicle of a Disappearance

Palestinian drama from 1996 with Elia Suleiman, Ola Tabari, Nazira Suleiman. Director: Elia Suleiman. (84) This film follows a Palestinian man's return to the West Bank in the months immediately following the Oslo Accord - a journey in search of what it means to be Palestinian. The director/protagonist moves between the role of character and spectator, mediator and narrator, as the film itself moves between documentary, fiction, reminiscence and present. Winner of the Luigi De Laurentiis Award at the Venice Film Festival.

19:00 The Van

Irish comedy from 1996 with Colm Meaney, Donal O'Kelly, Ger Ryan. Director: Stephen Frears. (95) Adapted from a fictional trilogy by Irish writer Roddy Doyle, this third instalment tells the story two unemployed friends in a working-class Dublin neighbourhood who convert a run-down van into a mobile fast-food joint. As business start to flourish however, their friendship is tested.

21:00 Stage Beauty

British drama from 2004 with Billy Crudup, Claire Danes, Tom Wilkinson. Director: Richard Eyre. (106) Set in London 1661 where Ned Kynaston, a stage actor specialized in portraying female characters in plays, becomes completely devastated when he finds out about a new law banning men from playing women on stage. Out of his mind and depressed, Ned turns to the bottle but soon his dresser Maria comes to his rescue and begins to teach him how to act as a man again.

23:00 The End of Violence

French drama from 1997 with Bill Pullman, Andie MacDowell, Gabriel Byrne. Director: Wim Wenders. (120) Two men are hired to kill film producer Mike Max who has built his career on exploiting violence. The desperate thugs successfully abduct Max but the next day their bodies are discovered, decapitated and inspector Doc Block is put in charge of investigating the case.

01:00 Weirdiville

American comedy from 2007 with Scott Speedman, Wes Bentley, Taryn Manning. Director: Allan Moyle. (87) Royce and Dexter are two slackers who live in the strange little town of Weirdiville. When Royce's girlfriend Matilda overdose's on their stash and dies, they decide to bury her in an abandoned Drive-In theater. Things get out of control when they discover Satanists performing a ritual sacrifice right where they were going to bury the body.

03:00 Why (Not) Brazil?

French drama from 2004 with Elsa Zylberstein, Marc Barbé, Bernard Le Coq. Director: Laetitia Masson. (92) A film director, whose career is going downhill, reluctantly decides to adapt an inadaptable best selling novel. Will she succeed or will the book adapt her in the process?

05:00 The Agronomist

American documentary from 2003 with Jean Dominique, . Director: Jonathan Demme. (90) A celebration of an extraordinary man - journalist, broadcaster and human rights activist Jean Dominique - and his tireless fight against injustice and oppression, the story of his uncompromising crusade for liberty and democracy in the vibrant country of Haiti.

2010-02-04 - Thursday

07:00 The Van

Irish comedy from 1996 with Colm Meaney, Donal O'Kelly, Ger Ryan. Director: Stephen Frears. (95) Adapted from a fictional trilogy by Irish writer Roddy Doyle, this third instalment tells the story two unemployed friends in a working-class Dublin neighbourhood who convert a run-down van into a mobile fast-food joint. As business start to flourish however, their friendship is tested.

09:00 Chronicle of a Disappearance

Palestinian drama from 1996 with Elia Suleiman, Ola Tabari, Nazira Suleiman. Director: Elia Suleiman. (84) This film follows a Palestinian man's return to the West Bank in the months immediately following the Oslo Accord - a journey in search of what it means to be Palestinian. The director/protagonist moves between the role of character and spectator, mediator and narrator, as the film itself moves between documentary, fiction, reminiscence and present. Winner of the Luigi De Laurentiis Award at the Venice Film Festival.

11:00 Stage Beauty

British drama from 2004 with Billy Crudup, Claire Danes, Tom Wilkinson. Director: Richard Eyre. (106) Set in London 1661 where Ned Kynaston, a stage actor specialized in portraying female characters in plays, becomes completely devastated when he finds out about a new law banning men from playing women on stage. Out of his mind and depressed, Ned turns to the bottle but soon his dresser Maria comes to his rescue and begins to teach him how to act as a man again.

13:00 Weirdsville

American comedy from 2007 with Scott Speedman, Wes Bentley, Taryn Manning. Director: Allan Moyle. (87) Royce and Dexter are two slackers who live in the strange little town of Weedsville. When Royce's girlfriend Matilda overdose's on their stash and dies, they decide to bury her in an abandoned Drive-In theater. Things get out of control when they discover Satanists performing a ritual sacrifice right where they were going to bury the body.

15:00 The End of Violence

French drama from 1997 with Bill Pullman, Andie MacDowell, Gabriel Byrne. Director: Wim Wenders. (120) Two men are hired to kill film producer Mike Max who has built his career on exploiting violence. The desperate thugs successfully abduct Max but the next day their bodies are discovered, decapitated and inspector Doc Block is put in charge of investigating the case.

17:00 The Agronomist

American documentary from 2003 with Jean Dominique, . . Director: Jonathan Demme. (90) A celebration of an extraordinary man - journalist, broadcaster and human rights activist Jean Dominique - and his tireless fight against injustice and oppression, the story of his uncompromising crusade for liberty and democracy in the vibrant country of Haiti.

19:00 One Word from You

Spanish drama from 2008 with Ramiro Alonso, Malena Alterio, Catalina Batista. Director: Ángeles González Sinde. (105) Rosario and Milagros are two friends who, after years of pitfalls, dashed illusions, fear and harsh realities, have come to suspect that happiness is something they may not deserve. The miserable duo tread two engaging paths; one, leading towards the most cruel emptiness, yet with a vital and optimistic attitude; the other, leading towards a future of hope and expectations with a redeemed life as a starting point.

21:00 Blue Car

American drama from 2002 with David Strathairn, Agnes Bruckner, Margaret Colin. Director: Karen Moncrieff. (84) Meg is a troubled teenager with a talent for poetry who has been abandoned by her father and is constantly neglected by her emotionally distant mother. On top of that, her younger sister is suffering from an aggravating mental condition and, as her family conditions worsens, Meg starts relying more and more on her suspiciously encouraging teacher.

23:00 All or Nothing

British drama from 2002 with Timothy Spall, Lesley Manville, Alison Garland. Director: Mike Leigh. (122) Phil and Penny are a lower middle-class couple who struggle to get by; he drives a cab and she is a grocery-store cashier. Their relationship is empty and their love seems to have run dry until one day when a sudden tragedy brings them together again.

01:15 Flirt

American drama from 1993 with Michael Imperioli, Parker Posey, Martin Donovan. Director: Hal Hartley. (90) Three cities, three stories, three love affairs. In New York, a good-natured but spoiled guy is given an ultimatum by his girlfriend. The same scenario then repeats itself but this time in Berlin, and between a gay male couple. The final episode is set in Tokyo where an unassuming dance student is kissed by her respected teacher.

03:00 Estômago: A Gastronomic Story

Brazilian drama from 2007 with João Miguel, Fabiula Nascimento, Babu Santana. Director: Marcos Jorge. (120) Nonato, a loose drifter, arrives in a town without a penny in a pocket and starts working at a decadent bar where his genuine talent for cooking soon becomes a fact. As the word about his skills in the kitchen spread, Nonato is head hunted for an upscale Italian restaurant but eventually his luck turns and Nonato winds up in prison where his unique talent becomes his salvation yet again.

05:00 Janice Beard 45 WPM

British comedy from 1999 with Eileen Walsh, Patsy Kensit, Rhys Ifans. Director: Clare Kilner. (77) Glasgow born Janice Beard moves to London to raise money for a cure for her mother's acute agoraphobia. Armed with nothing but a pitiful typing speed, Janice soon manages to get herself mixed up in romance and industrial espionage.

2010-02-05 - Friday

07:00 One Word from You

Spanish drama from 2008 with Ramiro Alonso, Malena Alterio, Catalina Batista. Director: Ángeles González Sinde. (105) Rosario and Milagros are two friends who, after years of pitfalls, dashed illusions, fear and harsh realities, have come to suspect that happiness is something they may not deserve. The miserable duo tread two engaging paths; one, leading towards the most cruel emptiness, yet with a vital and optimistic attitude; the other, leading towards a future of hope and expectations with a redeemed life as a starting point.

09:00 All or Nothing

British drama from 2002 with Timothy Spall, Lesley Manville, Alison Garland. Director: Mike Leigh. (122) Phil and Penny are a lower middle-class couple who struggle to get by; he drives a cab and she is a grocery-store cashier. Their relationship is empty and their love seems to have run dry until one day when a sudden tragedy brings them together again.

11:15 Blue Car

American drama from 2002 with David Strathairn, Agnes Bruckner, Margaret Colin. Director: Karen Moncrieff. (84) Meg is a troubled teenager with a talent for poetry who has been abandoned by her father and is constantly neglected by her emotionally distant mother. On top of that, her younger sister is suffering from an aggravating mental condition and, as her family conditions worsens, Meg starts relying more and more on her suspiciously encouraging teacher.

13:00 Flirt

American drama from 1993 with Michael Imperioli, Parker Posey, Martin Donovan. Director: Hal Hartley. (90) Three cities, three stories, three love affairs. In New York, a good-natured but spoiled guy is given an ultimatum by his girlfriend. The same scenario then repeats itself but this time in Berlin, and between a gay male couple. The final episode is set in Tokyo where an unassuming dance student is kissed by her respected teacher.

15:00 Janice Beard 45 WPM

British comedy from 1999 with Eileen Walsh, Patsy Kensit, Rhys Ifans. Director: Clare Kilner. (77) Glasgow born Janice Beard moves to London to raise money for a cure for her mother's acute agoraphobia. Armed with nothing but a pitiful typing speed, Janice soon manages to get herself mixed up in romance and industrial espionage.

17:00 Estômago: A Gastronomic Story

Brazilian drama from 2007 with João Miguel, Fabiula Nascimento, Babu Santana. Director: Marcos Jorge. (120) Nonato, a loose drifter, arrives in a town without a penny in a pocket and starts working at a decadent bar where his genuine talent for cooking soon becomes a fact. As the word about his skills in the kitchen spread, Nonato is head hunted for an upscale Italian restaurant but eventually his luck turns and Nonato winds up in prison where his unique talent becomes his salvation yet again.

19:00 Swing

British comedy from 1999 with Hugo Speer, Lisa Stansfield, Paul Usher. Director: Nick Mead. (97) Martin is thrown into jail where he's taught to play the sax by a fellow inmate and once released, he decides to start a swing band. Apart from a bassist, a drummer and a brass section, Martin needs the talents of Joan, a beautiful singer who also happens to be the love of his life and married to the very police officer who arrested him.

21:00 The Decline of the American Empire

Canadian comedy from 1986 with Dominique Michel, Dorothee Berryman, Louise Portal. Director: Denys Arcand. (105) Four women and four men who all work at the same university exchange their own tales from their love life in this dramatic comedy about sexual manners. The anecdotes are all set in the uptight world of academia and based on actual events of director Denys Arcand's professional friends.

23:00 The Trench

British drama from 1999 with Paul Nicholls, Daniel Craig, Tam Williams. Director: William Boyd. (105) Set in the 48 hours leading up to the Battle of the Somme in July 1916 as a group of British soldiers prepare to rush the German army. One of these young men is 17 year old Billy, who only enlisted to be with his beloved brother Eddie, and just like the rest of the group, the two brothers use any means necessary to distract themselves from the horror that awaits them.

01:00 Death of a President

British crime from 2006 with Hend Ayoub, Brian Boland, Becky Ann Baker. Director: Gabriel Range. (105) A controversial docudrama exploring the possible fallouts that would surround the assassination of the most powerful leader in the free world; George W Bush, made by the means of archive film footage, actors and computer generated special effects combined with a credible but fictional story. Winner of the International Critics' Prize at the Toronto Film Festival and an Emmy Award.

03:00 Fat Girl

French drama from 2001 with Anaïs Reboux, Roxane Mesquida, Libero De Rienzo. Director: Catherine Breillat. (90) Thirteen-year-old Anaïs is overweight and has a classic love/hate relationship with her older sister, Elena, who is slim and pretty. While on summer holiday with their parents, Anaïs observes her older sister becoming no more than an object of desire as she is seduced by an Italian student. Winner of the Manfred Salzgeber Award at the Berlin International Film Festival and the France Culture Award (French Cineaste of the Year) at the Cannes Film Festival.

05:00 Ashes and Sand

British thriller from 2002 with Nick Moran, Lara Belmont, Victoria Scarborough. Director: Bob Blagden. (105) Set in Brighton where Daniel, a handsome detective, is trying to put an end to the activities of a notorious girl gang who exclusively chose male victims. The gang leader, 15-year old Hayley, has made it her quest to stalk and seduce Daniel and as their mutual desire increases events move towards an inevitable tragedy.

2010-02-06 - Saturday

07:00 Swing

British comedy from 1999 with Hugo Speer, Lisa Stansfield, Paul Usher. Director: Nick Mead. (97) Martin is thrown into jail where he's taught to play the sax by a fellow inmate and once released, he decides to start a swing band. Apart from a bassist, a drummer and a brass section, Martin needs the talents of Joan, a beautiful singer who also happens to be the love of his life and married to the very police officer who arrested him.

09:00 Death of a President

British crime from 2006 with Hend Ayoub, Brian Boland, Becky Ann Baker. Director: Gabriel Range. (105) A controversial docudrama exploring the possible fallouts that would surround the assassination of the most powerful leader in the free world; George W Bush, made by the means of archive film footage, actors and computer generated special effects combined with a credible but fictional story. Winner of the International Critics' Prize at the Toronto Film Festival and an Emmy Award.

11:00 The Decline of the American Empire

Canadian comedy from 1986 with Dominique Michel, Dorothee Berryman, Louise Portal. Director: Denys Arcand. (105) Four women and four men who all work at the same university exchange their own tales from their love life in this dramatic comedy about sexual manners. The anecdotes are all set in the uptight world of academia and based on actual events of director Denys Arcand's professional friends.

13:00 Ashes and Sand

British thriller from 2002 with Nick Moran, Lara Belmont, Victoria Scarborough. Director: Bob Blagden. (105) Set in Brighton where Daniel, a handsome detective, is trying to put an end to the activities of a notorious girl gang who exclusively chose male victims. The gang leader, 15-year old Hayley, has made it her quest to stalk and seduce Daniel and as their mutual desire increases events move towards an inevitable tragedy.

15:00 Carnage

French drama from 2002 with Lucia Sanchez, Ángela Molina, Chiara Mastroianni. Director: Delphine Gleize. (130) In Spain it is believed that the herb rosemary possesses great healing powers. Romero ('Rosemary' in Spanish), a 475 kilo bull, dies in the arena. During the night that follows, his horns, bones, eyes and flesh take a journey - to Brussels, Madrid, France - disrupting the apparently ordinary lives of a number of characters in search of themselves.

17:15 Run Ronnie Run

American comedy from 2002 with Bruce Taylor, David Cross, Leon Lamar. Director: Troy Miller. (81) Hopeless career criminal Ronnie Dobbs keeps appearing on a cops-type TV crime show called "Fuzz" and becomes more and more popular with the viewers. Eventually, would be host Terry Twillstein realises the building hype around Ronnie and decides to give him his own show.

19:00 My Son

Belgian drama from 2006 with Nathalie Baye, Victor Sévaux, Olivier Gourmet. Director: Martial Fougeron. (90) Julien is an adorable boy on the cusp of adolescence whose mother controls his every move, often through cruel psychological bullying. Julien tries every way he can to break free finding respite at his grandmother's house and in the stolen moments with his secret girlfriend. But there is nothing stronger than a mother's love.

21:00 Kill The Man

American romance from 1999 with Jon Kean, Luke Wilson, Joshua Malina. Director: Tom Booker. (85) Stanley and Bob runs a copying store that they opened after winning $100,000 on a well placed basket ball shot at a free throw contest. When a giant copying chain opens across the street from them they have to come up with a way of keeping their business.

23:00 Fat Girl

French drama from 2001 with Anaïs Reboux, Roxane Mesquida, Libero De Rienzo. Director: Catherine Breillat. (82) Thirteen-year-old Anaïs is overweight and has a classic love/hate relationship with her older sister, Elena, who is slim and pretty. While on summer holiday with their parents, Anaïs observes her older sister becoming no more than an object of desire as she is seduced by an Italian student. Winner of the Manfred Salzgeber Award at the Berlin International Film Festival and the France Culture Award (French Cineaste of the Year) at the Cannes Film Festival.

01:00 Soft Fruit

Australian comedy from 1999 with Jeanie Drynan, Genevieve Lemon, Russell Dykstra. Director: Christina Andreef. (97) When Patsy, the mother of a big family, is diagnosed with terminal cancer, her four children gather to care for her in her final days. For the first time in fifteen years, the whole family is together under one roof and everyone's differing personalities add tension to the already strained situation.

03:00 The Trench

British drama from 1999 with Paul Nicholls, Daniel Craig, Tam Williams. Director: William Boyd. (105) Set in the 48 hours leading up to the Battle of the Somme in July 1916 as a group of British soldiers prepare to rush the German army. One of these young men is 17 year old Billy, who only enlisted to be with his beloved brother Eddie, and just like the rest of the group, the two brothers use any means necessary to distract themselves from the horror that awaits them.

05:00 A Scene at the Sea

Japanese romance from 1991 with Kurôdo Maki, Hiroko Oshima, Sabu Kawahara. Director: Takeshi Kitano. (101) A young deaf man comes across a battered surfboard which reawakens a dream within him of becoming a surf champion. With the support of his girlfriend, who is also deaf, he gets through the harsh training sessions and tough competitions. A lyrical masterpiece reminding us that images are often as powerful as words.

2010-02-07 - Sunday

07:00 Run Ronnie Run

American comedy from 2002 with Bruce Taylor, David Cross, Leon Lamar. Director: Troy Miller. (81) Hopeless career criminal Ronnie Dobbs keeps appearing on a cops-type TV crime show called "Fuzz" and becomes more and more popular with the viewers. Eventually, would be host Terry Twillstein realises the building hype around Ronnie and decides to give him his own show.

09:00 Carnage

French drama from 2002 with Lucia Sanchez, Ángela Molina, Chiara Mastroianni. Director: Delphine Gleize. (130) In Spain it is believed that the herb rosemary possesses great healing powers. Romero ('Rosemary' in Spanish), a 475 kilo bull, dies in the arena. During the night that follows, his horns, bones, eyes and flesh take a journey - to Brussels, Madrid, France - disrupting the apparently ordinary lives of a number of characters in search of themselves.

11:15 Kill The Man

American romance from 1999 with Jon Kean, Luke Wilson, Joshua Malina. Director: Tom Booker. (85) Stanley and Bob runs a copying store that they opened after winning $100,000 on a well placed basket ball shot at a free throw contest. When a giant copying chain opens across the street from them they have to come up with a way of keeping their business.

13:00 My Son

Belgian drama from 2006 with Nathalie Baye, Victor Sévaux, Olivier Gourmet. Director: Martial Fougeron. (90) Julien is an adorable boy on the cusp of adolescence whose mother controls his every move, often through cruel psychological bullying. Julien tries every way he can to break free finding respite at his grandmother's house and in the stolen moments with his secret girlfriend. But there is nothing stronger than a mother's love.

15:00 Soft Fruit

Australian comedy from 1999 with Jeanie Drynan, Genevieve Lemon, Russell Dykstra. Director: Christina Andreef. (97) When Patsy, the mother of a big family, is diagnosed with terminal cancer, her four children gather to care for her in her final days. For the first time in fifteen years, the whole family is together under one roof and everyone's differing personalities add tension to the already strained situation.

17:00 A Scene at the Sea

Japanese romance from 1991 with Kurôdo Maki, Hiroko Oshima, Sabu Kawahara. Director: Takeshi Kitano. (101) A young deaf man comes across a battered surfboard which reawakens a dream within him of becoming a surf champion. With the support of his girlfriend, who is also deaf, he gets through the harsh training sessions and tough competitions. A lyrical masterpiece reminding us that images are often as powerful as words.

19:00 Changing Sides

French comedy from 2008 with Sophie Marceau, Dany Boon, Antoine Duléry. Director: Pascale Pouzadoux. (105) Is life always sweeter on the other side of the bed? That's what Arianne and Hugo are wondering when they hire a lawyer to do something about the delays in their house renovation and end up asking him to help them swap lives with each other.

21:00 Buffalo Soldiers

American comedy from 2001 with Joaquin Phoenix, Ed Harris, Anna Paquin. Director: Gregor Jordan. (94) Elwood, a US soldier based in West Germany during the months leading up to the fall of the Berlin Wall, runs a profitable black-market business selling drugs and stealing army supplies. One day Elwood and his associates find some loot that will really pay off, but a new sergeant, whose daughter Elwood fancy, spots them and sets out to stop their business.

23:00 Thieves

Spanish drama from 2007 with Juan José Ballesta, María Valverde, Carlos Kaniowsky. Director: Jaime Marques. (105) After growing up in an orphanage Alex wants to begin a new life but soon he starts to remember what his mother taught him before leaving him behind; making a life as a pickpocket. One day he discovers college student Sara stealing in a supermarket and after the incident he confronts her with a crazy proposal; stealing together and splitting the booty.

01:00 The Low Down

British drama from 2000 with Kate Ashfield, Aiden Gillen, Dean Lennox Kelly. Director: Jamie Thraves. (92) Approaching his thirties, pop artist Frank finds himself at a crossroad in his life, faced with the heavy expectations and responsibilities that come with adulthood. Soon he starts dating estate agent Ruby who, as their relationship gets more serious, finds it hard to deal with Frank's attitude towards life.

03:00 The Devils

French drama from 2002 with Adele Haenel, Vincent Rottiers, Rochdy Labidi. Director: Christophe Ruggia. (105) Thirteen year old Chloé is mute and entirely dependent on her younger brother Joseph. The two of them were abandoned by their mother at a young age and have since been living in different homes, sometimes together, sometimes apart. Fiercely protective of Chloé and terrified that they could be separated at any time, Joseph will do whatever it takes to keep them from being split up.

05:00 Salaam Bombay!

British crime from 1988 with Shafiq Syed, Hansa Vithal, Chanda Sharma. Director: Mira Nair. (120) Krishna is a ten year old boy who travels to Bombay with a dream of making 500 rupees to bring home to his mother. Once there, he is immediately surrounded by Bombay's madness and everywhere there are children like him, surviving and succumbing to the appetite of the city. Winner of the Audience Award as well as the Golden Camera at the Cannes Film Festival 1988.

2010-02-08 - Monday

07:00 Changing Sides

French comedy from 2008 with Sophie Marceau, Dany Boon, Antoine Duléry. Director: Pascale Pouzadoux. (105) Is life always sweeter on the other side of the bed? That's what Arianne and Hugo are wondering when they hire a lawyer to do something about the delays in their house renovation and end up asking him to help them swap lives with each other.

09:00 Thieves

Spanish drama from 2007 with Juan José Ballesta, María Valverde, Carlos Kaniowsky. Director: Jaime Marques. (105) After growing up in an orphanage Alex wants to begin a new life but soon he starts to remember what his mother taught him before leaving him behind; making a life as a pickpocket. One day he discovers college student Sara stealing in a supermarket and after the incident he confronts her with a crazy proposal; stealing together and splitting the booty.

11:00 Buffalo Soldiers

American comedy from 2001 with Joaquin Phoenix, Ed Harris, Anna Paquin. Director: Gregor Jordan. (94) Elwood, a US soldier based in West Germany during the months leading up to the fall of the Berlin Wall, runs a profitable black-market business selling drugs and stealing army supplies. One day Elwood and his associates find some loot that will really pay off, but a new sergeant, whose daughter Elwood fancy, spots them and sets out to stop their business.

13:00 The Devils

French drama from 2002 with Adele Haenel, Vincent Rottiers, Rochdy Labidi. Director: Christophe Ruggia. (105) Thirteen year old Chloé is mute and entirely dependent on her younger brother Joseph. The two of them were abandoned by their mother at a young age and have since been living in different homes, sometimes together, sometimes apart. Fiercely protective of Chloé and terrified that they could be separated at any time, Joseph will do whatever it takes to keep them from being split up.

15:00 The Low Down

British drama from 2000 with Kate Ashfield, Aiden Gillen, Dean Lennox Kelly. Director: Jamie Thraves. (92) Approaching his thirties, pop artist Frank finds himself at a crossroad in his life, faced with the heavy expectations and responsibilities that come with adulthood. Soon he starts dating estate agent Ruby who, as their relationship gets more serious, finds it hard to deal with Frank's attitude towards life.

17:00 Salaam Bombay!

British crime from 1988 with Shafiq Syed, Hansa Vithal, Chanda Sharma. Director: Mira Nair. (120) Krishna is a ten year old boy who travels to Bombay with a dream of making 500 rupees to bring home to his mother. Once there, he is immediately surrounded by Bombay's madness and everywhere there are children like him, surviving and succumbing to the appetite of the city. Winner of the Audience Award as well as the Golden Camera at the Cannes Film Festival 1988.

19:00 Actrices

French comedy from 2007 with Valeria Bruni Tedeschi, Noémie Lvovsky, Louis Garrel. Director: Valeria Bruni Tedeschi. (107) Marcelline, a 40 year old actress struggling with her rehearsals for the Turgenev play "A Month in the Country", realises that she will probably never have a life outside the theatre and therefore never have children. At the same time, Marcelline is haunted by the play's heroine Natalia Petrovna. Winner of the Special Jury Prize at the Cannes Film Festival 2007.

21:00 The Independent

American comedy from 2000 with Jerry Stiller, Janeane Garofalo, Ron Howard. Director: Stephen Kessler. (95) Notorious B-movie director Morty Fineman tries for a comeback by seeking out the film rights to the life story of a serial killer who wants his biography film to be a musical.

23:00 I'm Gonna Explode

Mexican drama from 2008 with Juan Pablo de Santiago, Maria Deschamps, Daniel Giménez Cacho. Director: Gerardo Naranjo. (120) This film is set in Guanajuato and tells the story of Maru, a fifteen year old loner who meets Roman, a young man with violent fantasies. United in their desire to fight the immobility that they feel surrounding them, the two embark on a rebellion against everything and everyone.

01:00 Love and Death on Long Island

British drama from 1997 with John Hurt, Jason Priestley, Fiona Loewi. Director: Richard Kwietniowski. (89) Giles De'Ath, a highly acclaimed British novelist, accidentally ends up watching teen movie "Hotpants College II" and becomes infatuated by the movie's lead actor Ronnie Bostock. After the incident, Giles develops a deep obsession for Ronnie which completely changes his life.

03:00 Antonia's Line

Dutch comedy from 1995 with Willeke van Ammelrooy, Els Dottermans, Veerle van Overloop. Director: Marleen Gorris. (98) Realising she has reached her final days, Antonia, a strong-willed Dutch woman recalls her colourful life as a series of flashbacks beginning just after the end of WWII when she returns home to the family farm with her daughter. Winner of an Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film.

05:00 Bad Behaviour

British drama from 1992 with Stephen Rea, Sinéad Cusack, Philip Jackson. Director: Les Blair. (99) Gerry and Ellie are an Irish thirtysomething married couple who begin to remodel a part of their house and realise that their own relationship is in need of some severe renovation as well. This film had no script and was entirely improvised by the two stars based on given situations.

2010-02-09 - Tuesday

07:00 The Independent

American comedy from 2000 with Jerry Stiller, Janeane Garofalo, Ron Howard. Director: Stephen Kessler. (95) Notorious B-movie director Morty Fineman tries for a comeback by seeking out the film rights to the life story of a serial killer who wants his biography film to be a musical.

09:00 Actrices

French comedy from 2007 with Valeria Bruni Tedeschi, Noémie Lvovsky, Louis Garrel. Director: Valeria Bruni Tedeschi. (107) Marcelline, a 40 year old actress struggling with her rehearsals for the Turgenev play "A Month in the Country", realises that she will probably never have a life outside the theatre and therefore never have children. At the same time, Marcelline is haunted by the play's heroine Natalia Petrovna. Winner of the Special Jury Prize at the Cannes Film Festival 2007.

11:00 Love and Death on Long Island

British drama from 1997 with John Hurt, Jason Priestley, Fiona Loewi. Director: Richard Kwietniowski. (89) Giles De'Ath, a highly acclaimed British novelist, accidentally ends up watching teen movie "Hotpants College II" and becomes infatuated by the movie's lead actor Ronnie Bostock. After the incident, Giles develops a deep obsession for Ronnie which completely changes his life.

13:00 I'm Gonna Explode

Mexican drama from 2008 with Juan Pablo de Santiago, Maria Deschamps, Daniel Giménez Cacho. Director: Gerardo Naranjo. (120) This film is set in Guanajuato and tells the story of Maru, a fifteen year old loner who meets Roman, a young man with violent fantasies. United in their desire to fight the immobility that they feel surrounding them, the two embark on a rebellion against everything and everyone.

15:00 Bad Behaviour

British drama from 1992 with Stephen Rea, Sinéad Cusack, Philip Jackson. Director: Les Blair. (99) Gerry and Ellie are an Irish thirtysomething married couple who begin to remodel a part of their house and realise that their own relationship is in need of some severe renovation as well. This film had no script and was entirely improvised by the two stars based on given situations.

17:00 Antonia's Line

Dutch comedy from 1995 with Willeke van Ammelrooy, Els Dottermans, Veerle van Overloop. Director: Marleen Gorris. (98) Realising she has reached her final days, Antonia, a strong-willed Dutch woman recalls her colourful life as a series of flashbacks beginning just after the end of WWII when she returns home to the family farm with her daughter. Winner of an Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film.

19:00 Hidden City

British drama from 1987 with Charles Dance, Cassie Stuart, Bill Paterson. Director: Stephen Poliakoff. (102) James Richards, a statistician and writer, becomes involved with a client who is desperate to find an information film which was suppressed by the British Government in the 1940's. Their search leads them into a maze of underground tunnels and offices, built underneath the city during WWII.

21:00 Le Grand Voyage

French drama from 2004 with Nicholas Cazalé, Mohamed Majd, Jacky Nercessian. Director: Ismael Ferroukhi. (105) Just before his college entrance exam, Reda, a young man living in the south of France, finds himself forced to drive his father on a pilgrimage to Mecca. From the start of the 3,000 miles long journey, the talk between the two is reduced to the strict minimum but as the reluctant duo make their way through seven countries, the bond between them is tested and their lives changed forever. Winner of the Luigi De Laurentiis Award at the Venice Film Festival.

23:00 Wal-Mart: The High Cost of Low Price

American documentary from 2005 with Lee Scott, Don Hunter, Jon Hunter. Director: Robert Greenwald. (105) An inside look at one of America's most successful retail chains that will challenge the way you think, feel and shop. Featuring deeply personal stories of the everyday lives of families and communities struggling to survive in a Wal-Mart world.

01:00 Pudor

Spanish drama from 2007 with Elvira Mínguez, Marcos Ruiz, Joaquín Climent. Director: David Ulloa. (120) Sergio, the youngest member of a family with extreme communication's difficulties, starts seeing ghosts following his grandmother's death. Meanwhile, his mother begins receiving erotic messages from an anonymous admirer and at the same time, her husband learns he has a brain tumour.

03:00 Happy Accidents

American comedy from 2000 with Marisa Tomei, Vincent D'Onofrio, Nadia Dajani. Director: Brad Anderson. (120)
Lovelorn Ruby has practically given up on finding the right man in New York City when she bumps into Sam. They quickly fall for each other but just as Ruby starts to relish her first "healthy" relationship, Sam begins muttering about being a time traveller from the year 2470.

05:00 Hotel Very Welcome

German comedy from 2000 with Ricky Champ, Gareth Llewelyn, Eva Löbau. Director: Sonja Heiss. (90) Five young travellers all want to find or lose themselves in the beautiful and exotic lands of India and Thailand. A personal and humorous film about a restless generation searching for the meaning of life and what to do with it when found. Awarded at the Berlin International Film Festival 2007.

2010-02-10 - Wednesday

07:00 Le Grand Voyage

French drama from 2004 with Nicholas Cazalé, Mohamed Majd, Jacky Nercessian. Director: Ismael Ferroukhi. (105) Just before his college entrance exam, Reda, a young man living in the south of France, finds himself forced to drive his father on a pilgrimage to Mecca. From the start of the 3,000 miles long journey, the talk between the two is reduced to the strict minimum but as the reluctant duo make their way through seven countries, the bond between them is tested and their lives changed forever. Winner of the Luigi De Laurentiis Award at the Venice Film Festival.

09:00 Hidden City

British drama from 1987 with Charles Dance, Cassie Stuart, Bill Paterson. Director: Stephen Poliakoff. (102) James Richards, a statistician and writer, becomes involved with a client who is desperate to find an information film which was suppressed by the British Government in the 1940's. Their search leads them into a maze of underground tunnels and offices, built underneath the city during WWII.

11:00 Pudor

Spanish drama from 2007 with Elvira Mínguez, Marcos Ruiz, Joaquín Climent. Director: David Ulloa. (120) Sergio, the youngest member of a family with extreme communication's difficulties, starts seeing ghosts following his grandmother's death. Meanwhile, his mother begins receiving erotic messages from an anonymous admirer and at the same time, her husband learns he has a brain tumour.

13:00 Wal-Mart: The High Cost of Low Price

American documentary from 2005 with Lee Scott, Don Hunter, Jon Hunter. Director: Robert Greenwald. (105) An inside look at one of America's most successful retail chains that will challenge the way you think, feel and shop. Featuring deeply personal stories of the everyday lives of families and communities struggling to survive in a Wal-Mart world.

15:00 Hotel Very Welcome

German comedy from 2000 with Ricky Champ, Gareth Llewelyn, Eva Löbau. Director: Sonja Heiss. (90) Five young travellers all want to find or lose themselves in the beautiful and exotic lands of India and Thailand. A personal and humorous film about a restless generation searching for the meaning of life and what to do with it when found. Awarded at the Berlin International Film Festival 2007.

17:00 Happy Accidents

American comedy from 2000 with Marisa Tomei, Vincent D'Onofrio, Nadia Dajani. Director: Brad Anderson. (120) Lovelorn Ruby has practically given up on finding the right man in New York City when she bumps into Sam. They quickly fall for each other but just as Ruby starts to relish her first "healthy" relationship, Sam begins muttering about being a time traveller from the year 2470.

19:00 Live and Become

French drama from 2005 with Yaël Abecassis, Roschdy Zem, Moshe Agazai. Director: Radu Mihaileanu. (142) In mid 80's Ethiopia, a desperate mother persuades her young son to pose as a Jewish orphan in order to save him from the prevailing famine. The boy is adopted by a Jewish family and grows up in Tel Aviv, constantly dealing with the fear of being exposed. Winner of several awards at Berlin Film Festival.

21:30 The Girl from Monday

American action from 2005 with Bill Sage, Sabrina Lloyd, Tatiana Abracos. Director: Hal Hartley. (90) An alien being from a distant constellation called Monday drops into the ocean on planet earth assumed in the human form of a beautiful young woman. Her mission is to look for her friend who she suspects is in trouble, caught perhaps in the body he has assumed. But the world she drops into is in turmoil.

23:00 Better Things

British drama from 2008 with Tara Ballard, Betty Bench, Frank Bench. Director: Duane Hopkins. (90) A multi-narrative tale set in present day England depicting a handful of characters and their withdrawal and commitment to each other and life in general; Gail is suffering from agoraphobia, Rob, who has finally come to terms with the loss of his girlfriend and Mr & Mrs Gladwin are going through a shift in their 60 year long relationship.

01:00 Japanese Story

Australian drama from 2003 with Toni Colette, Gotaro Tsunashima, Matthew Dyktynski. Director: Sue Brooks. (105) Sandy, an ambitious geologist running a software design company, finds herself stranded in the Pilbara desert with a reserved Japanese businessman while trying to sell her software products. Her prospective client is determined to reach one of the most remote places on the planet and in order to survive the quest, the ill-matched couple are forced to adapt to each other.

03:00 Vengo

Spanish drama from 2000 with Antonio Canales, Orestes Villasán Rodríguez, Antonio Dechent. Director: Tony Gatlif. (90) Set in the deep south of Andalusia where Caco struggles to get over the death of his daughter. When he doesn't visit her grave, Caco drowns his grief in musical revelries in the company of his young beloved nephew, Diego, whose physical handicap is no obstacle to his passion for wild times, women and Flamenco.

05:00 Metal - A Headbanger's Journey

Canadian documentary from 2005 with Alice Cooper, Mayhem, Slayer. Director: Sam Dunn. (94) This film examines the Heavy Metal music scene since the 1960s' and explores the obsession with provocation subjects like sexuality, religion, violence and death. Including clips from concerts and interviews with artists such as Black Sabbath, Slayer, Motörhead and Mayhem.

2010-02-11 - Thursday

07:00 Live and Become

French drama from 2005 with Yaël Abecassis, Roschdy Zem, Moshe Agazai. Director: Radu Mihaileanu. (142) In mid 80's Ethiopia, a desperate mother persuades her young son to pose as a Jewish orphan in order to save him from the prevailing famine. The boy is adopted by a Jewish family and grows up in Tel Aviv, constantly dealing with the fear of being exposed. Winner of several awards at Berlin Film Festival.

09:30 Better Things

British drama from 2008 with Tara Ballard, Betty Bench, Frank Bench. Director: Duane Hopkins. (90) A multi-narrative tale set in present day England depicting a handful of characters and their withdrawal and commitment to each other and life in general; Gail is suffering from agoraphobia, Rob, who has finally come to terms with the loss of his girlfriend and Mr & Mrs Gladwin are going through a shift in their 60 year long relationship.

11:00 The Girl from Monday

American action from 2005 with Bill Sage, Sabrina Lloyd, Tatiana Abracos. Director: Hal Hartley. (90) An alien being from a distant constellation called Monday drops into the ocean on planet earth assumed in the human form of a beautiful young woman. Her mission is to look for her friend who she suspects is in trouble, caught perhaps in the body he has assumed. But the world she drops into is in turmoil.

13:00 Japanese Story

Australian drama from 2003 with Toni Colette, Gotaro Tsunashima, Matthew Dyktynski. Director: Sue Brooks. (105) Sandy, an ambitious geologist running a software design company, finds herself stranded in the Pilbara desert with a reserved Japanese businessman while trying to sell her software products. Her prospective client is determined to reach one of the most remote places on the planet and in order to survive the quest, the ill-matched couple are forced to adapt to each other.

15:00 Metal - A Headbanger's Journey

Canadian documentary from 2005 with Alice Cooper, Mayhem, Slayer. Director: Sam Dunn. (94) This film examines the Heavy Metal music scene since the 1960s' and explores the obsession with provocation subjects like sexuality, religion, violence and death. Including clips from concerts and interviews with artists such as Black Sabbath, Slayer, Motörhead and Mayhem.

17:00 Vengo

Spanish drama from 2000 with Antonio Canales, Orestes Villasán Rodríguez, Antonio Dechent. Director: Tony Gatlif. (90) Set in the deep south of Andalusia where Caco struggles to get over the death of his daughter. When he doesn't visit her grave, Caco drowns his grief in musical revelries in the company of his young beloved nephew, Diego, whose physical handicap is no obstacle to his passion for wild times, women and Flamenco.

19:00 A Man's Gotta Do

Australian comedy from 2004 with John Howard, Alyssa McClelland, Rebecca Frith. Director: Chris Kennedy. (88) Eddy is a fisherman in a small coastal town who owns a beautiful house, has an attractive wife and a 19 year-old daughter. From the outside it all looks pretty normal but for the last 25 years Eddy has been secretly committing murders for hire on the side in order to afford to keep his family happy.

21:00 Bashing

Japanese drama from 2005 with Fusako Urabe, Nene Otsuka, Takayuki Katô. Director: Masahiro Kobayashi. (90) Yuko is a Japanese aid worker who, while helping the people of war-torn Iraq, ends up being taken hostage. After she's mercifully released by her kidnappers, Yuko returns home but only to discover that she has become a victim of a mass public shunning by a population who are embarrassed and horrified at the international attention she received.

23:00 The Woodsman

American drama from 2004 with Kevin Bacon, Kyra Sedgwick, David Alan Grier. Director: Nicole Kassell. (83) Walter, a sentenced child molester, returns to his hometown to start over after serving twelve years in prison. At first things seem to work out for Walter, he gets a job at a woodyard, his brother in law helps him to get a place to stay and he even strikes up a relationship with a woman, but it doesn't take long before his troubled past catches up with him and people around him begin getting suspicious.

01:00 Fabulous! The Story of Queer Cinema

American documentary from 2006 with Ang Lee, Todd Haynes, Gus Van Sant. Director: Lisa Ades & Lesli Klainberg. (85) The evolution of independent gay and lesbian cinema. From experimental film makers of the forties and fifties to underground film makers of the sixties, seventies and eighties, to the breakthrough "New Queer Cinema" of the 90's and the cutting edge gay film makers of today.

03:00 Secrets and Lies

British drama from 1996 with Brenda Blethyn, Marianne Jean-Baptiste, Claire Rushbrook. Director: Mike Leigh. (136)
When her adoptive mother dies, Hortense, a 27 years old black woman, decides to look for her real mother. She is overwhelmed when she discovers that her biological mother, Cynthia, is white and has a 20 year old daughter called Roxanne. Awarded Best Foreign Language Film at the Independent Spirit Awards, Best Actress at the Golden Globes as well as Best Screenplay, Best Actress and Best British Film at the BAFTA Awards.

05:30 Skin

Dutch drama from 2008 with John Buijsman, Chris Comvalius, Guus Dam. Director: Hanro Smitsman. (90) Based on true events and set in 1979's Holland where a boy who, in trying to break free from life with a father traumatized by the Holocaust, is led into the emerging skin head youth culture and the neo-Nazi revival. The first feature length movie by 2007 Berlin Film Festival Golden Berlin Bear winning director for Best Short Film, Hanro Smitsman.

2010-02-12 - Friday

07:00 A Man's Gotta Do

Australian comedy from 2004 with John Howard, Alyssa McClelland, Rebecca Frith. Director: Chris Kennedy. (88) Eddy is a fisherman in a small coastal town who owns a beautiful house, has an attractive wife and a 19 year-old daughter. From the outside it all looks pretty normal but for the last 25 years Eddy has been secretly committing murders for hire on the side in order to afford to keep his family happy.

09:00 The Woodsman

American drama from 2004 with Kevin Bacon, Kyra Sedgwick, David Alan Grier. Director: Nicole Kassell. (83) Walter, a sentenced child molester, returns to his hometown to start over after serving twelve years in prison. At first things seem to work out for Walter, he gets a job at a woodyard, his brother in law helps him to get a place to stay and he even strikes up a relationship with a woman, but it doesn't take long before his troubled past catches up with him and people around him begin getting suspicious.

11:00 Bashing

Japanese drama from 2005 with Fusako Urabe, Nene Otsuka, Takayuki Katô. Director: Masahiro Kobayashi. (90) Yuko is a Japanese aid worker who, while helping the people of war-torn Iraq, ends up being taken hostage. After she's mercifully released by her kidnappers, Yuko returns home but only to discover that she has become a victim of a mass public shunning by a population who are embarrassed and horrified at the international attention she received.

13:00 Secrets and Lies

British drama from 1996 with Brenda Blethyn, Marianne Jean-Baptiste, Claire Rushbrook. Director: Mike Leigh. (136) When her adoptive mother dies, Hortense, a 27 years old black woman, decides to look for her real mother. She is overwhelmed when she discovers that her biological mother, Cynthia, is white and has a 20 year old daughter called Roxanne. Awarded Best Foreign Language Film at the Independent Spirit Awards, Best Actress at the Golden Globes as well as Best Screenplay, Best Actress and Best British Film at the BAFTA Awards.

15:30 Fabulous! The Story of Queer Cinema

American documentary from 2006 with Ang Lee, Todd Haynes, Gus Van Sant. Director: Lisa Ades & Lesli Klainberg. (85) The evolution of independent gay and lesbian cinema. From experimental film makers of the forties and fifties to underground film makers of the sixties, seventies and eighties, to the breakthrough "New Queer Cinema" of the 90's and the cutting edge gay film makers of today.

17:00 Skin

Dutch drama from 2008 with John Buijsman, Chris Comvalius, Guus Dam. Director: Hanro Smitsman. (90) Based on true events and set in 1979's Holland where a boy who, in trying to break free from life with a father traumatized by the Holocaust, is led into the emerging skin head youth culture and the neo-Nazi revival. The first feature length movie by 2007 Berlin Film Festival Golden Berlin Bear winning director for Best Short Film, Hanro Smitsman.

19:00 Dead Bodies

Irish comedy from 2003 with Andrew Scott, Katy Davis, Eamonn Owens. Director: Robert Quinn. (83) The uneventful life of Irish bachelor Tommy, takes a sharp turn when his vengeful ex-girlfriend returns into his life. A confrontation between the two sets off a series of gruesome events which soon leaves Tommy facing the prospect of being a murder suspect.

21:00 35 Shots of Rum

French drama from 2008 with Alex Descas, Mati Diop, Gregoire Colin. Director: Claire Denis. (105) Lionel is middle aged, widowed man who has raised his now grown up daughter Josephine on his own. Their life together is a lot like that of a couple and they look after each other as if time was endless. Soon however, Lionel realises that he is not as young as he once was and how much he depends on his daughter.

23:00 Happiness

American drama from 1998 with Jane Adams, Jon Lovitz, Philip Seymour Hoffman. Director: Todd Solondz. (134) This controversial film deals with the unhappiness and perversion behind everyday life. Obscene phone calls, paedophilia and a collapsing marriage turn out to be the ingredients in the lives of three sisters and their families. Happiness won the International Critics' prize at the 1998 Cannes Film Festival.

01:15 Kill The Man

American romance from 1999 with Jon Kean, Luke Wilson, Joshua Malina. Director: Tom Booker. (85) Stanley and Bob runs a copying store that they opened after winning $100,000 on a well placed basket ball shot at a free throw contest. When a giant copying chain opens across the street from them they have to come up with a way of keeping their business.

03:00 Signs and Wonders

French drama from 2000 with Stellan Skarsgård, Charlotte Rampling, Deborah Kara Unger. Director: Jonathan Nossiter. (103) Alec is a successful businessman who loves his wife but can't stay away from his seductive co-worker Katherine. He soon breaks the affair off but when Katherine suddenly turns up on a family ski trip, Alec decides to leave with her.

05:00 Grimm

Dutch drama from 2003 with Halina Reijn, Jacob Derwig, Teresa Berganza. Director: Alex van Warmerdam. (105) In this post-modern fairy tale of Hansel and Gretel, Jacob and his sister Marie are left behind in the woods by their unemployed Dutch father. In his coat Jacob finds a note from his Spanish mother urging them to go to their uncle's place in Spain but they arrive there to find that their uncle has died.

2010-02-13 - Saturday

07:00 Dead Bodies

Irish comedy from 2003 with Andrew Scott, Katy Davis, Eamonn Owens. Director: Robert Quinn. (83) The uneventful life of Irish bachelor Tommy, takes a sharp turn when his vengeful ex-girlfriend returns into his life. A confrontation between the two sets off a series of gruesome events which soon leaves Tommy facing the prospect of being a murder suspect.

09:00 Happiness

American drama from 1998 with Jane Adams, Jon Lovitz, Philip Seymour Hoffman. Director: Todd Solondz. (134) This controversial film deals with the unhappiness and perversion behind everyday life. Obscene phone calls, paedophilia and a collapsing marriage turn out to be the ingredients in the lives of three sisters and their families. Happiness won the International Critics' prize at the 1998 Cannes Film Festival.

11:15 35 Shots of Rum

French drama from 2008 with Alex Descas, Mati Diop, Gregoire Colin. Director: Claire Denis. (105) Lionel is middle aged, widowed man who has raised his now grown up daughter Josephine on his own. Their life together is a lot like that of a couple and they look after each other as if time was endless. Soon however, Lionel realises that he is not as young as he once was and how much he depends on his daughter.

13:00 Kill The Man

American romance from 1999 with Jon Kean, Luke Wilson, Joshua Malina. Director: Tom Booker. (85) Stanley and Bob runs a copying store that they opened after winning $100,000 on a well placed basket ball shot at a free throw contest. When a giant copying chain opens across the street from them they have to come up with a way of keeping their business.

15:00 Grimm

Dutch drama from 2003 with Halina Reijn, Jacob Derwig, Teresa Berganza. Director: Alex van Warmerdam. (105) In this post-modern fairy tale of Hansel and Gretel, Jacob and his sister Marie are left behind in the woods by their unemployed Dutch father. In his coat Jacob finds a note from his Spanish mother urging them to go to their uncle's place in Spain but they arrive there to find that their uncle has died.

17:00 Signs and Wonders

French drama from 2000 with Stellan Skarsgård, Charlotte Rampling, Deborah Kara Unger. Director: Jonathan Nossiter. (103) Alec is a successful businessman who loves his wife but can't stay away from his seductive co-worker Katherine. He soon breaks the affair off but when Katherine suddenly turns up on a family ski trip, Alec decides to leave with her.

19:00 The Decline of the American Empire

Canadian comedy from 1986 with Dominique Michel, Dorothee Berryman, Louise Portal. Director: Denys Arcand. (105) Four women and four men who all work at the same university exchange their own tales from their love life in this dramatic comedy about sexual manners. The anecdotes are all set in the uptight world of academia and based on actual events of director Denys Arcand's professional friends.

21:00 The Station Agent

American comedy from 2003 with Peter Dinklage, Patricia Clarkson, Bobby Cannavale. Director: Thomas McCarthy. (90) A mismatched threesome forge an unlikely bond, which ultimately reveals that even isolation is better shared. Awarded Best Screenplay at the BAFTA Awards and Best First Screenplay at the Independent Spirit Awards as well as with the Audience Award, The Special Jury Prize and The Waldo Screenwriting Award at the Sundance Film Festival.

23:00 Kaos

Italian drama from 1984 with Margarita Lozano, Claudio Bigagli, Omero Antonutti. Director: Paolo & Vittorio Taviani. (180) A compilation of five episodes based on short stories from Luigi Pirandello's 15-volume series "Novelle per un anno", all set around his birthplace in 19th century Sicily. A raven, which in the introduction is given a bell around its neck, guides from one story to another and Pirandello's peculiar perspective of life is gradually disclosed.

02:00 The Film Festival Project: Tribeca

American documentary from 2007. (48) This series goes behind-the-scenes of four of the world's most important film events including: Toronto Film Festival, Sundance, Cannes and the Tribeca Film Festival to capture the glamour and grit of working the festival circuit. From starlets to auteurs- buyers and sellers, reporters and marketers are all engaged in a swirl of activity in and out of the screening rooms. A series that chronicles the experiences of the hectic days and long nights of festival madness.

03:00 The Independent

American comedy from 2000 with Jerry Stiller, Janeane Garofalo, Ron Howard. Director: Stephen Kessler. (95) Notorious B-movie director Morty Fineman tries for a comeback by seeking out the film rights to the life story of a serial killer who wants his biography film to be a musical.

05:00 Crossing the Bridge: The Sound of Istanbul

Turkish documentary from 2005 with Alexander Hacke, Baba Zula, Orient Expressions. Director: Fatih Akin. (90) A journey through the music scene and the cultural life of modern Istanbul narrated by German musician Alexander Hacke.

2010-02-14 - Sunday

07:00 The Decline of the American Empire

Canadian comedy from 1986 with Dominique Michel, Dorothee Berryman, Louise Portal. Director: Denys Arcand. (105) Four women and for men who all work at the same university exchange their own tales from their love life in this dramatic comedy about sexual manners. The anecdotes are all set in the uptight world of academia and based on actual events of director Denys Arcand's professional friends.

09:00 Kaos

Italian drama from 1984 with Margarita Lozano, Claudio Bigagli, Omero Antonutti. Director: Paolo & Vittorio Taviani. (180) A compilation of five episodes based on short stories from Luigi Pirandello's 15-volume series "Novelle per un anno", all set around his birthplace in 19th century Sicily. A raven, which in the introduction is given a bell around its neck, guides from one story to another and Pirandello's peculiar perspective of life is gradually disclosed.

12:00 The Film Festival Project: Sundance

American documentary from 2007. (48) This series goes behind-the-scenes of four of the world's most important film events including: Toronto Film Festival, Sundance, Cannes and the Tribeca Film Festival to capture the glamour and grit of working the festival circuit. From starlets to auteurs- buyers and sellers, reporters and marketers are all engaged in a swirl of activity in and out of the screening rooms. A series that chronicles the experiences of the hectic days and long nights of festival madness.

13:00 The Station Agent

American comedy from 2003 with Peter Dinklage, Patricia Clarkson, Bobby Cannavale. Director: Thomas McCarthy. (90) A mismatched threesome forge an unlikely bond, which ultimately reveals that even isolation is better shared. Awarded Best Screenplay at the BAFTA Awards and Best First Screenplay at the Independent Spirit Awards as well as with the Audience Award, The Special Jury Prize and The Waldo Screenwriting Award at the Sundance Film Festival.

15:00 Crossing the Bridge: The Sound of Istanbul

Turkish documentary from 2005 with Alexander Hacke, Baba Zula, Orient Expressions. Director: Fatih Akin. (90) A journey through the music scene and the cultural life of modern Istanbul narrated by German musician Alexander Hacke.

17:00 The Independent

American comedy from 2000 with Jerry Stiller, Janeane Garofalo, Ron Howard. Director: Stephen Kessler. (95) Notorious B-movie director Morty Fineman tries for a comeback by seeking out the film rights to the life story of a serial killer who wants his biography film to be a musical.

19:00 The Hole

Taiwanese drama from 1998 with Lee Kang-sheng, Yang Kuei-Mei, Lin Hui-Chin. Director: Ming-liang Tsai. (105) As a mysterious disease reaches epidemic proportions in Taipei, a young man uses a sizable hole in his living room floor to spy on his downstairs neighbour, an attractive woman who stockpiles toilet paper. Awarded with the FIPRESCI Prize at the Cannes Film Festival 1998.

21:00 The Notorious Bettie Page

American biography from 2005 with Gretchen Mol, Chris Bauer, Jared Harris. Director: Mary Harron. (90) After growing up in a conservative religious family in Tennessee, Bettie Page became a photo model sensation in 1950's New York. Bettie's legendary pin-up photos made her the target of a Senate investigation into pornography, and transformed her into an erotic icon who continues to enthrall fans until this day.

23:00 Zus and Zo

Dutch comedy from 2001 with Monic Hendrickx, Anneke Blok, Sylvia Poorta. Director: Paula Van Der Oest. (100) Three sisters, united by their dream of a new life in Portugal, find out that their gay brother Nino is going to marry a younger girl in order to inherit the family's property on the coast of Portugal. The sisters are soon invited to plan the wedding by Nino's wife-to-be but instead they hatch a plan of how to sabotage the engagement and thereby get the summer villa to themselves.

01:00 Mary

American drama from 2005 with Juliette Binoche, Forest Whitaker, Heather Graham. Director: Abel Ferrara. (83) The lives and paths of Tony, an egoistic and obsessive film director, Ted, a contemplative talk show host and Marie, an actress in the throes of a religious epiphany, come dramatically together when the premiere of Tony's film becomes the target of bomb threats by the vengeful religious right. Winner of the Grand Special Jury Prize, the Mimmo Rotella Foundation Award, the SIGNIS Award and the Sergio Trasatti Award at the Venice Film Festival.

03:00 15 Amore

Australian drama from 1998 with Lisa Hensley, Steve Bastoni, Domenic Galati. Director: Maurice Murphy. (95) With her husband off fighting in WWII, the beautiful and independent Dorothy has remained in the Australian countryside to raise three young children. Living with them are Alfredo and Joseph, two Italian war prisoners who assist with the homesteads upkeep and gradually, Dorothy and Alfredo fall deeply in love but are unable to act upon their feelings.

05:00 Distant

Turkish drama from 2003 with Muzaffer Özdemir, Emin Toprak, Zuhale Gencer. Director: Nuri Bilge Ceylan. (105) A photographer, haunted by the feeling that the gap between his life and his ideals is growing, finds himself obliged to put up a young relative who has left his hometown to find work in Istanbul. Awarded Best Actor, Foreign Cineaste of the Year and with the Grand Prize of the Jury at the Cannes Film Festival.

2010-02-15 - Monday

07:00 The Notorious Bettie Page

American biography from 2005 with Gretchen Mol, Chris Bauer, Jared Harris. Director: Mary Harron. (90) After growing up in a conservative religious family in Tennessee, Bettie Page became a photo model sensation in 1950's New York. Bettie's legendary pin-up photos made her the target of a Senate investigation into pornography, and transformed her into an erotic icon who continues to enthrall fans until this day.

09:00 The Hole

Taiwanese drama from 1998 with Lee Kang-sheng, Yang Kuei-Mei, Lin Hui-Chin. Director: Ming-liang Tsai. (105) As a mysterious disease reaches epidemic proportions in Taipei, a young man uses a sizable hole in his living room floor to spy on his downstairs neighbour, an attractive woman who stockpiles toilet paper. Awarded with the FIPRESCI Prize at the Cannes Film Festival 1998.

11:00 Mary

American drama from 2005 with Juliette Binoche, Forest Whitaker, Heather Graham. Director: Abel Ferrara. (83) The lives and paths of Tony, an egoistic and obsessive film director, Ted, a contemplative talk show host and Marie, an actress in the throes of a religious epiphany, come dramatically together when the premiere of Tony's film becomes the target of bomb threats by the vengeful religious right. Winner of the Grand Special Jury Prize, the Mimmo Rotella Foundation Award, the SIGNIS Award and the Sergio Trasatti Award at the Venice Film Festival.

13:00 Zus and Zo

Dutch comedy from 2001 with Monic Hendrickx, Anneke Blok, Sylvia Poorta. Director: Paula Van Der Oest. (100) Three sisters, united by their dream of a new life in Portugal, find out that their gay brother Nino is going to marry a younger girl in order to inherit the family's property on the coast of Portugal. The sisters are soon invited to plan the wedding by Nino's wife-to-be but instead they hatch a plan of how to sabotage the engagement and thereby get the summer villa to themselves.

15:00 Distant

Turkish drama from 2003 with Muzaffer Özdemir, Emin Toprak, Zuhul Gencer. Director: Nuri Bilge Ceylan. (105) A photographer, haunted by the feeling that the gap between his life and his ideals is growing, finds himself obliged to put up a young relative who has left his hometown to find work in Istanbul. Awarded Best Actor, Foreign Cineaste of the Year and with the Grand Prize of the Jury at the Cannes Film Festival.

17:00 15 Amore

Australian drama from 1998 with Lisa Hensley, Steve Bastoni, Domenic Galati. Director: Maurice Murphy. (95) With her husband off fighting in WWII, the beautiful and independent Dorothy has remained in the Australian countryside to raise three young children. Living with them are Alfredo and Joseph, two Italian war prisoners who assist with the homesteads upkeep and gradually, Dorothy and Alfredo fall deeply in love but are unable to act upon their feelings.

19:00 Run Lola Run

German action from 1998 with Franka Potente, Moritz Bleibtreu, Herbert Knaup. Director: Tom Tykwer. (76) Manni loses the payment of a smuggling job on the subway and calls his girlfriend, Lola, in desperation. Lola now has 20 minutes to get hold of 100,000DEM in order to save her boyfriend from the rage of his boss. After a failed attempt to get money from her father's bank Lola is shot, but soon the story begins anew with different outcomes. Winner of The Audience Award at the Sundance Film Festival.

21:00 Déficit

Mexican drama from 2007 with Gael García Bernal, Camila Sodi, Luz Cipriota. Director: Gael García Bernal. (90) Rich kid Cristobal invites his friends to a party which will be the last of its kind since his parents have left the country in order to get away from the enforcement service. The lazy days by the pool are soon to be over and the final assembly at the luxury house becomes an orgy in vulgar upper class conduct all observed with disgust by the servants who are of the same age as Cristobal and his festive friends. The directorial debut of award winning actor Gael García Bernal.

23:00 The Navigators

British comedy from 2001 with Dean Andrews, Thomas Craig, Joe Duttine. Director: Ken Loach. (92) Set in South Yorkshire where the lives of a group of rail track workers change considerably as the British Rail system is privatised. Their two options are now to either take their chances with redundancy cash and life as casual agency workers, or work for the company under new harsh rules. Winner of a BAFTA Award for Best New Writer and the Rota Soundtrack Award at the Venice Film Festival.

01:00 Nobody's Life

Spanish drama from 2002 with José Coronado, Adriana Ozores, Marta Etura. Director: Eduard Cortés. (103) Emilio has it all; a well paid job at the Bank of Spain, a beautiful house, a loving wife and a son who looks up to him. But nothing is what it seems, his life is just a big lie and when Rosana, a sexy young student enters his world, the subtle balance that keeps his secret hidden falls apart, taking him and the ones he loves to an unexpected ending.

03:00 Film Noir

American animation from 2007 with Mark Keller, Bettina Devin, Roger Jackson. Director: D. Jud Jones and Risto Topaloski. (97) A man wakes up below the famous Hollywood sign next to a dead cop without any idea of what has happened, how he got there or who he is. As he follows the few traces he can find in his search for answers, our hero slowly gets to know the man who looks back at him in the mirror. But the more he remembers, the more he wants to forget..

05:00 Ten Inch Hero

American comedy from 2007 with Elisabeth Harnois, Clea DuVall, Sean Patrick Flanery. Director: David Mackay. (97) This film revolves around the love lives of Piper, an accomplished artist, Tish, a knockout nymphomaniac, the irreverent Priestly and Jen, a lost wallflower, who all work together at a sandwich shop owned by Trucker, an old hippie surfer who is in love with the manager of a crystal shop across the street.

2010-02-16 - Tuesday

07:00 Run Lola Run

German action from 1998 with Franka Potente, Moritz Bleibtreu, Herbert Knaup. Director: Tom Tykwer. (76) Manni loses the payment of a smuggling job on the subway and calls his girlfriend, Lola, in desperation. Lola now has 20 minutes to get hold of 100,000DEM in order to save her boyfriend from the rage of his boss. After a failed attempt to get money from her father's bank Lola is shot, but soon the story begins anew with different outcomes. Winner of The Audience Award at the Sundance Film Festival.

09:00 The Navigators

British comedy from 2001 with Dean Andrews, Thomas Craig, Joe Duttine. Director: Ken Loach. (92) Set in South Yorkshire where the lives of a group of rail track workers change considerably as the British Rail system is privatised. Their two options are now to either take their chances with redundancy cash and life as casual agency workers, or work for the company under new harsh rules. Winner of a BAFTA Award for Best New Writer and the Rota Soundtrack Award at the Venice Film Festival.

11:00 Déficit

Mexican drama from 2007 with Gael García Bernal, Camila Sodi, Luz Cipriota. Director: Gael García Bernal. (90) Rich kid Cristobal invites his friends to a party which will be the last of its kind since his parents have left the country in order to get away from the enforcement service. The lazy days by the pool are soon to be over and the final assembly at the luxury house becomes an orgy in vulgar upper class conduct all observed with disgust by the servants who are of the same age as Cristobal and his festive friends. The directorial debut of award winning actor Gael García Bernal.

13:00 Ten Inch Hero

American comedy from 2007 with Elisabeth Harnois, Clea DuVall, Sean Patrick Flanery. Director: David Mackay. (97) This film revolves around the love lives of Piper, an accomplished artist, Tish, a knockout nymphomaniac, the irreverent Priestly and Jen, a lost wallflower, who all work together at a sandwich shop owned by Trucker, an old hippie surfer who is in love with the manager of a crystal shop across the street.

15:00 Nobody's Life

Spanish drama from 2002 with José Coronado, Adriana Ozores, Marta Etura. Director: Eduard Cortés. (103) Emilio has it all; a well paid job at the Bank of Spain, a beautiful house, a loving wife and a son who looks up to him. But nothing is what it seems, his life is just a big lie and when Rosana, a sexy young student enters his world, the subtle balance that keeps his secret hidden falls apart, taking him and the ones he loves to an unexpected ending.

17:00 Closing Time

Japanese drama from 1996 with Sansho Shinsui, Takeo Nakahara, Kazuki Kitamura. Director: Masahiro Kobayashi. (90) Sanshō Shinsui is a writer who, consumed by the loss of his wife and child, leads a life of blissful self-annihilation and spends his days drinking away his sorrow. As he wanders the streets of Tokyo at night, Sanshō encounters all kinds of lost souls in their mutual search for love.

19:00 She Hate Me

American comedy from 2004 with Anthony Mackie, Kerry Washington, Ellen Barkin. Director: Spike Lee. (132) Jack is fired from his job in biotechnology which leaves him with no choice when his ex girlfriend offers him a great deal of money to impregnate her. Once the word is out in the lesbian community, Jack gets heaps of similar requests and soon starts to enjoy his new direction in life, but things are inevitable doomed to get complicated.

21:15 Exiles

French drama from 2004 with Romain Duris, Lubna Azabal, Zouhir Gacem. Director: Tony Gatlif. (98) Zano and Naima, two lovers living in Paris, decide to travel to Algeria and explore the country their parents were forced to leave decades earlier. Unable to speak the language and unfamiliar with the traditions, Zano and Naima discover a land that fascinates at the same time as they realise just how far away from its culture they stand. Awarded Best Director at the Cannes Film Festival.

23:00 Film Noir

American animation from 2007 with Mark Keller, Bettina Devin, Roger Jackson. Director: D. Jud Jones and Risto Topaloski. (97) A man wakes up below the famous Hollywood sign next to a dead cop without any idea of what has happened, how he got there or who he is. As he follows the few traces he can find in his search for answers, our hero slowly gets to know the man who looks back at him in the mirror. But the more he remembers, the more he wants to forget..

01:00 I Always Wanted to Be a Gangster

French comedy from 2007 with Anna Mouglaglis, Edouard Baer, Jean Rochefort. Director: Samuel Benchetrit. (120) This laid-back crime comedy features four interlinked stories set around a roadside diner in provincial France; a petty criminal is pondering to rob the diner, two desperate criminals kidnap the suicidal daughter of a wealthy businessman, an aging rock star steals his colleague's latest piece and finally, four retired career criminals decide to make a comeback. Winner of the World Cinema Screenwriting Award at the Sundance Film Festival 2008.

03:00 Frankie

French drama from 2005 with Diane Kruger, Jeanie Gravelines, Brigitte Catillon. Director: Fabienne Berthaud. (88) Frankie, a 26 year old model, has reached the end of her career and becomes totally disillusioned when she realizes the immensity of her solitude. Confined to a psychiatric clinic, Frankie recalls the events that have brought her to this point and the unforgiving nature of her profession.

05:00 Black and White

Australian drama from 2002 with Robert Carlyle, Charles Dance, Kerry Fox. Director: Craig Lahiff. (99) Set in the late 1950's Australia where a lawyer named David O'Sullivan is assigned to defend Max Stuart, an illiterate aboriginal man on trial for murdering a little girl. It soon becomes obvious to Sullivan that Max was tricked to sign the confession and with some help from a Catholic priest, he takes on the next to impossible quest to prove Max's the innocence.

2010-02-17 - Wednesday

07:00 She Hate Me

American comedy from 2004 with Anthony Mackie, Kerry Washington, Ellen Barkin. Director: Spike Lee. (132) Jack is fired from his job in biotechnology which leaves him with no choice when his ex girlfriend offers him a great deal of money to impregnate her. Once the word is out in the lesbian community, Jack gets heaps of similar requests and soon starts to enjoy his new direction in life, but things are inevitable doomed to get complicated.

09:15 Closing Time

Japanese drama from 1996 with Sansho Shinsui, Takeo Nakahara, Kazuki Kitamura. Director: Masahiro Kobayashi. (90) Sanshō Shinsui is a writer who, consumed by the loss of his wife and child, leads a life of blissful self-annihilation and spends his days drinking away his sorrow. As he wanders the streets of Tokyo at night, Sanshō encounters all kinds of lost souls in their mutual search for love.

11:00 Exiles

French drama from 2004 with Romain Duris, Lubna Azabal, Zouhir Gacem. Director: Tony Gatlif. (98) Zano and Naima, two lovers living in Paris, decide to travel to Algeria and explore the country their parents were forced to leave decades earlier. Unable to speak the language and unfamiliar with the traditions, Zano and Naima discover a land that fascinates at the same time as they realise just how far away from its culture they stand. Awarded Best Director at the Cannes Film Festival.

13:00 Frankie

French drama from 2005 with Diane Kruger, Jeanie Gravelines, Brigitte Catillon. Director: Fabienne Berthaud. (88) Frankie, a 26 year old model, has reached the end of her career and becomes totally disillusioned when she realizes the immensity of her solitude. Confined to a psychiatric clinic, Frankie recalls the events that have brought her to this point and the unforgiving nature of her profession.

15:00 I Always Wanted to Be a Gangster

French comedy from 2007 with Anna Mouglaglis, Edouard Baer, Jean Rochefort. Director: Samuel Benchetrit. (120) This laid-back crime comedy features four interlinked stories set around a roadside diner in provincial France; a petty criminal is pondering to rob the diner, two desperate criminals kidnap the suicidal daughter of a wealthy businessman, an aging rock star steals his colleague's latest piece and finally, four retired career criminals decide to make a comeback. Winner of the World Cinema Screenwriting Award at the Sundance Film Festival 2008.

17:00 Black and White

Australian drama from 2002 with Robert Carlyle, Charles Dance, Kerry Fox. Director: Craig Lahiff. (99) Set in the late 1950's Australia where a lawyer named David O'Sullivan is assigned to defend Max Stuart, an illiterate aboriginal man on trial for murdering a little girl. It soon becomes obvious to Sullivan that Max was tricked to sign the confession and with some help from a Catholic priest, he takes on the next to impossible quest to prove Max's the innocence.

19:00 Dear Diary

Italian comedy from 1993 with Nanni Moretti, Renato Carpentieri, Antonio Neiviller. Director: Nanni Moretti. (96) A semi autobiographical story set in three parts which gives a wry look at life through director Nanni Moretti's experiences driving his vespa, cruising a remote set of islands and eventually fighting cancer. Awarded Best Director at the Cannes Film Festival and with the the FIPRESCI Prize at the European Film Awards.

21:00 Heavy

American drama from 1995 with Liv Tyler, Pruitt Taylor Vince, Shelley Winters. Director: James Mangold. (105) In upstate New York, seemingly located off the beaten highway, is the roadside tavern, "Pete & Dolly's", where Victor, an introverted, over-weight pizza chef, maintains his daily vigil. Into this settled little world comes Callie, a beautiful, but directionless, college dropout, whom Victor immediately develops a crush on.

23:00 Comedy of Power

French drama from 2006 with Isabelle Huppert, François Berléand, Patrick Bruel. Director: Claude Chabrol. (120) Judge Jeanne Charmant is assigned the job of investigating and untangling a complex case of embezzlement and misappropriation of public funds, and bringing a case against the president of a powerful industrial conglomerate. As the investigation takes shape, she feels her power growing and the more secrets she penetrates, the greater becomes her means of applying pressure.

01:00 Glastonbury

British documentary from 2006 with Björk, David Bowie, Radiohead. Director: Julien Temple. (132) An extraordinary look at the history of Glastonbury and the events that turned it into the biggest pop music festival in the world, including memorable performances with artists like David Bowie, New Order, Radiohead, Coldplay, the Velvet Underground, Björk, and many more.

03:15 The Trench

British drama from 1999 with Paul Nicholls, Daniel Craig, Tam Williams. Director: William Boyd. (95) Set in the 48 hours leading up to the Battle of the Somme in July 1916 as a group of British soldiers prepare to rush the German army. One of these young men is 17 year old Billy, who only enlisted to be with his beloved brother Eddie, and just like the rest of the group, the two brothers use any means necessary to distract themselves from the horror that awaits them.

05:00 Where the Money Is

American drama from 2000 with Paul Newman, Linda Fiorentino, Dermot Mulroney. Director: Marek Kaniévski. (89) One of America's most notorious bank robbers, Henry Manning, has reached a considerable age and is moved to a nursing home after suffering what seemed to be a stroke. Soon Henry develops a close bond with Carol, one of the young nurses at the home, and together with her and her husband Wayne, he starts planning his last score.

2010-02-18 - Thursday

07:00 Dear Diary

Italian comedy from 1993 with Nanni Moretti, Renato Carpentieri, Antonio Neiviller. Director: Nanni Moretti. (96) A semi autobiographical story set in three parts which gives a wry look at life through director Nanni Moretti's experiences driving his vespa, cruising a remote set of islands and eventually fighting cancer. Awarded Best Director at the Cannes Film Festival and with the the FIPRESCI Prize at the European Film Awards.

09:00 Comedy of Power

French drama from 2006 with Isabelle Huppert, François Berléand, Patrick Bruel. Director: Claude Chabrol. (120) Judge Jeanne Charmant is assigned the job of investigating and untangling a complex case of embezzlement and misappropriation of public funds, and bringing a case against the president of a powerful industrial conglomerate. As the investigation takes shape, she feels her power growing and the more secrets she penetrates, the greater becomes her means of applying pressure.

11:00 Heavy

American drama from 1995 with Liv Tyler, Pruitt Taylor Vince, Shelley Winters. Director: James Mangold. (105) In upstate New York, seemingly located off the beaten highway, is the roadside tavern, "Pete & Dolly's", where Victor, an introverted, over-weight pizza chef, maintains his daily vigil. Into this settled little world comes Callie, a beautiful, but directionless, college dropout, whom Victor immediately develops a crush on.

13:00 Glastonbury

British documentary from 2006 with Björk, David Bowie, Radiohead. Director: Julien Temple. (132) An extraordinary look at the history of Glastonbury and the events that turned it into the biggest pop music festival in the world, including memorable performances with artists like David Bowie, New Order, Radiohead, Coldplay, the Velvet Underground, Björk, and many more.

15:15 Where the Money Is

American drama from 2000 with Paul Newman, Linda Fiorentino, Dermot Mulroney. Director: Marek Kaniévka. (89) One of America's most notorious bank robbers, Henry Manning, has reached a considerable age and is moved to a nursing home after suffering what seemed to be a stroke. Soon Henry develops a close bond with Carol, one of the young nurses at the home, and together with her and her husband Wayne, he starts planning his last score.

17:00 Durian Durian

Chinese drama from 2000 with Hailu Qin, Wai-Fan Mak, Xiao Ming Biao. Director: Fruit Chan. (120) Fan, a beautiful Chinese small-town girl, and Yan, a 21 year old prostitute, are neighbours in Hong Kong's seedy Mong Kok district and one night in a back alley the two girls witness a man being attacked with a rather peculiar weapon; a large spiky fruit called a "durian".

19:00 Beautiful People

British comedy from 1999 with Rosalind Ayres, Nicholas Farrell, Faruk Pruti. Director: Jasmin Dizdar. (105) Set in London on the 13th of October 1993, England are to play Holland in a critical World Cup qualifier and the Bosnian war is at its height. A Serb and a Croat from the same village in Bosnia meet on a London bus while encounters with refugees from the war help four British families see the beauty that exists in their own lives. Awarded with "Un Certain Regard Award" at the Cannes Film Festival.

21:00 Sonetàula

Italian drama from 2008 with Francesco Falchetto, Manuala Martelli, Antonio Crisponi. Director: Salvatore Mereu. (157) In late 30's Sardinia, the father of twelve year old Sonetàula is wrongly imprisoned and the young boy becomes a shepherd guided by his grandfather. Five years later an incident forces him on the run from the police and soon Sonetàula becomes a reckless bandit and starts plotting how he will revenge the man who accused his father of a crime he did not commit.

00:00 The Film Festival Project: Cannes

American documentary from 2007. (48) This series goes behind-the-scenes of four of the world's most important film events including: Toronto Film Festival, Sundance, Cannes and the Tribeca Film Festival to capture the glamour and grit of working the festival circuit. From starlets to auteurs- buyers and sellers, reporters and marketers are all engaged in a swirl of activity in and out of the screening rooms. A series that chronicles the experiences of the hectic days and long nights of festival madness.

01:00 Five Times Two

French drama from 2004 with Valeria Bruni Tedeschi, Stéphane Freiss, Michael Lonsdale. Director: François Ozon. (90) Five scenes from a modern marriage in which love has coagulated into a poisonous duel. The storyline follows the couple's history backwards starting with the divorce followed by the disintegration of the relationship, a troubled pregnancy, the wedding and finally the genesis in a holiday romance.

03:00 Lost Highway

American drama from 1997 with Bill Pullman, Patricia Arquette, Balthazar Getty. Director: David Lynch. (129) Saxophonist Fred Madison is accused of murdering his wife Renee. On death row, he inexplicably morphs into a young man named Pete Dayton, leading a completely different life. When Pete is released, his and Fred's paths begin to cross in a surreal, suspenseful web of intrigue, orchestrated by a shady gangster boss named Dick Laurent.

05:15 Jay and Silent Bob Strike Back

American comedy from 2001 with Jason Mewes, Kevin Smith, Ben Affleck. Director: Kevin Smith. (105) Jay and Silent Bob are a pair of New Jersey stoners who for a long time have been used as prototypes for two comic book characters. After being informed that their alter egos are being adapted into a big blockbuster movie, the slacker duo pull themselves together and set off to Hollywood to wreck the production.

2010-02-19 - Friday

07:00 Sonetàula

Italian drama from 2008 with Francesco Falchetto, Manuela Martelli, Antonio Crisponi. Director: Salvatore Mereu. (157) In late 30's Sardinia, the father of twelve year old Sonetàula is wrongly imprisoned and the young boy becomes a shepherd guided by his grandfather. Five years later an incident forces him on the run from the police and soon Sonetàula becomes a reckless bandit and starts plotting how he will revenge the man who accused his father of a crime he did not commit.

10:00 The Film Festival Project: Toronto

American documentary from 2007. (48) This series goes behind-the-scenes of four of the world's most important film events including: Toronto Film Festival, Sundance, Cannes and the Tribeca Film Festival to capture the glamour and grit of working the festival circuit. From starlets to auteurs- buyers and sellers, reporters and marketers are all engaged in a swirl of activity in and out of the screening rooms. A series that chronicles the experiences of the hectic days and long nights of festival madness.

11:00 Beautiful People

British comedy from 1999 with Rosalind Ayres, Nicholas Farrell, Faruk Pruti. Director: Jasmin Dizdar. (105) Set in London on the 13th of October 1993, England are to play Holland in a critical World Cup qualifier and the Bosnian war is at its height. A Serb and a Croat from the same village in Bosnia meet on a London bus while encounters with refugees from the war help four British families see the beauty that exists in their own lives. Awarded with "Un Certain Regard Award" at the Cannes Film Festival.

13:00 Five Times Two

French drama from 2004 with Valeria Bruni Tedeschi, Stéphane Freiss, Michael Lonsdale. Director: François Ozon. (90) Five scenes from a modern marriage in which love has coagulated into a poisonous duel. The storyline follows the couple's history backwards starting with the divorce followed by the disintegration of the relationship, a troubled pregnancy, the wedding and finally the genesis in a holiday romance.

15:00 Jay and Silent Bob Strike Back

American comedy from 2001 with Jason Mewes, Kevin Smith, Ben Affleck. Director: Kevin Smith. (105) Jay and Silent Bob are a pair of New Jersey stoners who for a long time have been used as prototypes for two comic book characters. After being informed that their alter egos are being adapted into a big blockbuster movie, the slacker duo pull themselves together and set off to Hollywood to wreck the production.

17:00 Lost Highway

American drama from 1997 with Bill Pullman, Patricia Arquette, Balthazar Getty. Director: David Lynch. (129) Saxophonist Fred Madison is accused of murdering his wife Renee. On death row, he inexplicably morphs into a young man named Pete Dayton, leading a completely different life. When Pete is released, his and Fred's paths begin to cross in a surreal, suspenseful web of intrigue, orchestrated by a shady gangster boss named Dick Laurent.

19:15 Mataharis

Spanish comedy from 2007 with Najwa Nimri, Tristán Ulloa, María Vázquez. Director: Icíar Bollaín. (90) Private detectives Inés, Eva, and Carmen often invade on others' privacy but are clueless about confronting their own secrets. While on the job, these three surveillance specialists will have to cross the thin line dividing public and private matters, bringing their own issues to light in order to solve more than just their professional cases.

21:00 Talk Radio

American drama from 1988 with Eric Bogosian, Leslie Hope, John C. McGinley. Director: Oliver Stone. (105) Barry Champlain is a controversial radio talk show host whose provocative views and swaggering attitude has not only made him very popular amongst his listeners but also the main target of a militant right-wing hate group. Inspired by the destiny of real life radio host Alan Berg and awarded with the Silver Berlin Bear at the Berlin Film Festival in 1989.

23:00 Welcome to the Dollhouse

American comedy from 1995 with Heather Matarazzo, Matthew Faber, Brendan Sexton III. Director: Todd Solondz. (90) A harsh suburban comedy about 11-year old Dawn Wiener, a middle child in middle school in the middle of New Jersey. Sometimes hated, often reviled, seldom understood, Dawn tries in vain to put on a happy and friendly face as she struggles through the onset of what looks to be a long puberty. Awarded with the Grand Jury Prize at the Sundance Film Festival, the C.I.C.A.E. Award at the Berlin International Film Festival and for Best Debut Performance at the Independent Spirit Awards.

01:00 The Trench

British drama from 1999 with Paul Nicholls, Daniel Craig, Tam Williams. Director: William Boyd. (95) Set in the 48 hours leading up to the Battle of the Somme in July 1916 as a group of British soldiers prepare to rush the German army. One of these young men is 17 year old Billy, who only enlisted to be with his beloved brother Eddie, and just like the rest of the group, the two brothers use any means necessary to distract themselves from the horror that awaits them.

03:00 The Station Agent

American comedy from 2003 with Peter Dinklage, Patricia Clarkson, Bobby Cannavale. Director: Thomas McCarthy. (90) A mismatched threesome forge an unlikely bond, which ultimately reveals that even isolation is better shared. Awarded Best Screenplay at the BAFTA Awards and Best First Screenplay at the Independent Spirit Awards as well as with the Audience Award, The Special Jury Prize and The Waldo Screenwriting Award at the Sundance Film Festival.

05:00 Bashing

Japanese drama from 2005 with Fusako Urabe, Nene Otsuka, Takayuki Katô. Director: Masahiro Kobayashi. (90) Yuko is a Japanese aid worker who, while helping the people of war-torn Iraq, ends up being taken hostage. After she's mercifully released by her kidnappers, Yuko returns home but only to discover that she has become a victim of a mass public shunning by a population who are embarrassed and horrified at the international attention she received.

2010-02-20 - Saturday

07:00 Mataharis

Spanish comedy from 2007 with Najwa Nimri, Tristán Ulloa, María Vázquez. Director: Icíar Bollaín. (90) Private detectives Inés, Eva, and Carmen often invade on others' privacy but are clueless about confronting their own secrets. While on the job, these three surveillance specialists will have to cross the thin line dividing public and private matters, bringing their own issues to light in order to solve more than just their professional cases.

09:00 Welcome to the Dollhouse

American comedy from 1995 with Heather Matarazzo, Matthew Faber, Brendan Sexton III. Director: Todd Solondz. (90) A harsh suburban comedy about 11-year old Dawn Wiener, a middle child in middle school in the middle of New Jersey. Sometimes hated, often reviled, seldom understood, Dawn tries in vain to put on a happy and friendly face as she struggles through the onset of what looks to be a long puberty. Awarded with the Grand Jury Prize at the Sundance Film Festival, the C.I.C.A.E. Award at the Berlin International Film Festival and for Best Debut Performance at the Independent Spirit Awards.

11:00 Durian Durian

Chinese drama from 2000 with Hailu Qin, Wai-Fan Mak, Xiao Ming Biao. Director: Fruit Chan. (120) Fan, a beautiful Chinese small-town girl, and Yan, a 21 year old prostitute, are neighbours in Hong Kong's seedy Mong Kok district and one night in a back alley the two girls witness a man being attacked with a rather peculiar weapon; a large spiky fruit called a "durian".

13:00 Talk Radio

American drama from 1988 with Eric Bogosian, Leslie Hope, John C. McGinley. Director: Oliver Stone. (105) Barry Champlain is a controversial radio talk show host whose provocative views and swaggering attitude has not only made him very popular amongst his listeners but also the main target of a militant right-wing hate group. Inspired by the destiny of real life radio host Alan Berg and awarded with the Silver Berlin Bear at the Berlin Film Festival in 1989.

15:00 Bashing

Japanese drama from 2005 with Fusako Urabe, Nene Otsuka, Takayuki Katô. Director: Masahiro Kobayashi. (90) Yuko is a Japanese aid worker who, while helping the people of war-torn Iraq, ends up being taken hostage. After she's mercifully released by her kidnappers, Yuko returns home but only to discover that she has become a victim of a mass public shunning by a population who are embarrassed and horrified at the international attention she received.

17:00 The Station Agent

American comedy from 2003 with Peter Dinklage, Patricia Clarkson, Bobby Cannavale. Director: Thomas McCarthy. (90) A mismatched threesome forge an unlikely bond, which ultimately reveals that even isolation is better shared. Awarded Best Screenplay at the BAFTA Awards and Best First Screenplay at the Independent Spirit Awards as well as with the Audience Award, The Special Jury Prize and The Waldo Screenwriting Award at the Sundance Film Festival.

19:00 Requiem

German drama from 2006 with Sandra Hüller, Burghart Klaußner, Imogen Kogge. Director: Hans-Christian Schmid. (88) Michaela, a first year university student from a deeply religious family, is struggling with academic expectations as well as epilepsy. For the first time in her young life, Michaela begins to get a taste of freedom, friendship and love but soon an ill-advised abandonment of her medication sets off a chilling series of events. Winner of the FIPRESCI prize and for Best Actress at the Berlin International Film Festival.

21:00 The Match

British comedy from 1999 with Max Beesley, Ivan Reitman, James Cosmo. Director: Mick Davis. (92) In a single street Scottish town an annual football game is coming up. The match will settle a 100 year old conflict between the original owners of the town's only two pubs; Benny's Bar and Le Bistro. The odds are not looking good for Benny's bar since their team has lost 99 years in a row.

23:00 The Center of the World

American drama from 2001 with Peter Sarsgaard, Molly Parker, Shane Edelman. Director: Wayne Wang. (84) Richard, a dot-com millionaire who feels cut-off from the outside world, offers a lap dancer $10,000 to spend three nights with him in Vegas. She accepts his offer with a list of rules: no kissing on the mouth, no penetration, and each will stay in separate bedrooms and only convene during the hours of 10 p.m. and 2 a.m.

01:00 With Gilbert and George

British documentary from 2007 with Gilbert Proesch, George Passmore, Julian Cole. Director: Julian Cole. (105) After modelling for the contemporary artist duo Gilbert & George in 1986, Julian Cole turned his camera on them. His intimate and moving portrait, filmed over nearly two decades, reveals for the first time their remarkable relationship and the individuals that are a permanent living sculpture.

03:00 Déficit

Mexican drama from 2007 with Gael García Bernal, Camila Sodi, Luz Cipriota. Director: Gael García Bernal. (90) Rich kid Cristobal invites his friends to a party which will be the last of its kind since his parents have left the country in order to get away from the enforcement service. The lazy days by the pool are soon to be over and the final assembly at the luxury house becomes an orgy in vulgar upper class conduct all observed with disgust by the servants who are of the same age as Cristobal and his festive friends. The directorial debut of award winning actor Gael García Bernal.

05:00 Good Morning, Babylon

Italian drama from 1987 with Vincent Spano, Joaquim de Almeida, Charles Dance. Director: Paolo Taviani & Vittorio Taviani. (90) Nicola and Andrea Bonnano, the latest in a long line of Italian cathedral builders, immigrate to America in the early 20th century. Eventually the two brothers settle in Los Angeles where they end up working for director D.W. Griffith who is impressed by their craftsmanship. All seem to be going really well until events beyond their control put an end to their ambitions.

2010-02-21 - Sunday

07:00 Requiem

German drama from 2006 with Sandra Hüller, Burghart Klaußner, Imogen Kogge. Director: Hans-Christian Schmid. (88) Michaela, a first year university student from a deeply religious family, is struggling with academic expectations as well as epilepsy. For the first time in her young life, Michaela begins to get a taste of freedom, friendship and love but soon an ill-advised abandonment of her medication sets off a chilling series of events. Winner of the FIPRESCI prize and for Best Actress at the Berlin International Film Festival.

09:00 With Gilbert and George

British documentary from 2007 with Gilbert Proesch, George Passmore, Julian Cole. Director: Julian Cole. (105) After modelling for the contemporary artist duo Gilbert & George in 1986, Julian Cole turned his camera on them. His intimate and moving portrait, filmed over nearly two decades, reveals for the first time their remarkable relationship and the individuals that are a permanent living sculpture.

11:00 The Match

British comedy from 1999 with Max Beesley, Ivan Reitman, James Cosmo. Director: Mick Davis. (92) In a single street Scottish town an annual football game is coming up. The match will settle a 100 year old conflict between the original owners of the town's only two pubs; Benny's Bar and Le Bistro. The odds are not looking good for Benny's bar since their team has lost 99 years in a row.

13:00 Good Morning, Babylon

Italian drama from 1987 with Vincent Spano, Joaquim de Almeida, Charles Dance. Director: Paolo Taviani & Vittorio Taviani. (90) Nicola and Andrea Bonnano, the latest in a long line of Italian cathedral builders, immigrate to America in the early 20th century. Eventually the two brothers settle in Los Angeles where they end up working for director D.W. Griffith who is impressed by their craftsmanship. All seem to be going really well until events beyond their control put an end to their ambitions.

15:00 Déficit

Mexican drama from 2007 with Gael García Bernal, Camila Sodi, Luz Cipriota. Director: Gael García Bernal. (90) Rich kid Cristobal invites his friends to a party which will be the last of its kind since his parents have left the country in order to get away from the enforcement service. The lazy days by the pool are soon to be over and the final assembly at the luxury house becomes an orgy in vulgar upper class conduct all observed with disgust by the servants who are of the same age as Cristobal and his festive friends. The directorial debut of award winning actor Gael García Bernal.

17:00 Chocolate

French drama from 1988 with Isaach De Bankolé, Giulia Boschi, François Cluzet. Director: Claire Denis. (100) Set in Cameroon, right before the country gains its independence, where the Dalens' family lead a quiet life in a small town run by the French Administration. Their peaceful existence is disturbed however, when a lost plane makes a forced landing on the Dalens' property.

19:00 I Can't Sleep

French drama from 1994 with Yekaterina Golubeva, Richard Courcet, Vincent Dupont. Director: Claire Denis. (107) A beautiful Lithuanian girl comes to Paris to follow up what turns out to be an empty promise from a French director she slept with. Her path crosses with a struggling musician and his brother, a transvestite dancer, in the swarming 18th district, which also happens to be the haunting ground of a killer with a taste for elderly ladies.

21:00 Nenette and Boni

French drama from 1996 with Gregoire Colin, Alice Houri, Jacques Nolot. Director: Claire Danes. (99) Boni, a 19-year-old pizza maker leading a humdrum life in Marseilles, gets an unexpected visit from his younger sister Nénette. The two siblings were raised apart due to their parents divorce but as Nénette invades Boni's private space and even his protective dream world, he is forced to get to know her better.

23:00 35 Shots of Rum

French drama from 2008 with Alex Descas, Mati Diop, Gregoire Colin. Director: Claire Denis. (105) Lionel is middle aged, widowed man who has raised his now grown up daughter Josephine on his own. Their life together is a lot like that of a couple and they look after each other as if time was endless. Soon however, Lionel realises that he is not as young as he once was and how much he depends on his daughter.

01:00 Angela's Ashes

Irish drama from 1999 with Emily Watson, Robert Carlyle, Liam Carney. Director: Alan Parker. (139) Based on the Pulitzer Prize-winning memoir of Frank McCourt, this film tells the tale of Frank moving from New York to Limerick, Ireland, with his parents, hoping to prosper in their home country. Instead things get worse as illness and death are commonplace in Limerick.

03:30 The Center of the World

American drama from 2001 with Peter Sarsgaard, Molly Parker, Shane Edelman. Director: Wayne Wang. (84) Richard, a dot-com millionaire who feels cut-off from the outside world, offers a lap dancer $10,000 to spend three nights with him in Vegas. She accepts his offer with a list of rules: no kissing on the mouth, no penetration, and each will stay in separate bedrooms and only convene during the hours of 10 p.m. and 2 a.m.

05:00 Tarnation

American documentary from 2003 with Renee Leblanc, Jonathan Caouette, Adolph Davis. Director: Jonathan Caouette. (91) A whirlpool of snapshots, Super 8 home movies, old answering machine messages, video diaries, early short films and dramatic re-enactments creates this portrait of what it's like to grow up with a schizophrenic mother.

2010-02-22 - Monday

07:00 I Can't Sleep

French drama from 1994 with Yekaterina Golubeva, Richard Courcet, Vincent Dupont. Director: Claire Denis. (107) A beautiful Lithuanian girl comes to Paris to follow up what turns out to be an empty promise from a French director she slept with. Her path crosses with a struggling musician and his brother, a transvestite dancer, in the swarming 18th district, which also happens to be the haunting ground of a killer with a taste for elderly ladies.

09:00 Chocolate

French drama from 1988 with Isaach De Bankolé, Giulia Boschi, François Cluzet. Director: Claire Denis. (100) Set in Cameroon, right before the country gains its independence, where the Dalens' family lead a quiet life in a small town run by the French Administration. Their peaceful existence is disturbed however, when a lost plane makes a forced landing on the Dalens' property.

11:00 35 Shots of Rum

French drama from 2008 with Alex Descas, Mati Diop, Gregoire Colin. Director: Claire Denis. (105) Lionel is middle aged, widowed man who has raised his now grown up daughter Josephine on his own. Their life together is a lot like that of a couple and they look after each other as if time was endless. Soon however, Lionel realises that he is not as young as he once was and how much he depends on his daughter.

13:00 Nenette and Boni

French drama from 1996 with Gregoire Colin, Alice Houri, Jacques Nolot. Director: Claire Danes. (99) Boni, a 19-year-old pizza maker leading a humdrum life in Marseilles, gets an unexpected visit from his younger sister Nénette. The two siblings were raised apart due to their parents divorce but as Nénette invades Boni's private space and even his protective dream world, he is forced to get to know her better.

15:00 Angela's Ashes

Irish drama from 1999 with Emily Watson, Robert Carlyle, Liam Carney. Director: Alan Parker. (139) Based on the Pulitzer Prize-winning memoir of Frank McCourt, this film tells the tale of Frank moving from New York to Limerick, Ireland, with his parents, hoping to prosper in their home country. Instead things get worse as illness and death are commonplace in Limerick.

17:30 Tarnation

American documentary from 2003 with Renee Leblanc, Jonathan Caouette, Adolph Davis. Director: Jonathan Caouette. (91) A whirlpool of snapshots, Super 8 home movies, old answering machine messages, video diaries, early short films and dramatic re-enactments creates this portrait of what it's like to grow up with a schizophrenic mother.

19:15 Made in Paris

French drama from 2006 with Edouard Baer, Geraldine Pailhas, Marina de Van. Director: Pascal Bonitzer. (90) One morning, Diane discovers that Hermann, the love of her life, is about to publish a book by her ex lover in which he reveals their entire past. Another morning, Herman bumps into his ex girlfriend Anne who is still very much in love with him though he left her for Diane.

21:00 The Moguls

American comedy from 2005 with Jeff Bridges, Tim Blake Nelson, Joe Pantoliano. Director: Michael Traeger. (105) Andy is a nice guy down on luck who decides to change his destiny in life by making a porno movie together with his loser friends. With characteristic enthusiasm, Andy then inspires his small community to come together to live their dream. A touching story about bettering yourself against all odds - in the most unconventional of ways!

23:00 The Guys

American drama from 2002 with Sigourney Weaver, Anthony LaPaglia, Irene Walsh. Director: Jim Simpson. (80) In the aftermath of 9/11 Joan, a veteran journalist, helps the FDNY captain Nick to write obituaries for the 8 men from his crew that died in the tragedy. Joan interviews Nick and together they find the words to honour each fallen man. Adapted from a play by Anne Nelson.

01:00 Feast of the Goat

Dominican drama from 2005 with Isabella Rossellini, Tomas Milian, Paul Freeman. Director: Luis Llosa. (135) Dominican émigré attorney, Urania returns to her native country in 1992 after 40 years of absence in order to confront her fatally ill father who once was the right hand of the corrupt dictator Rafael Trujillo. The film then flashes back to the events surrounding the assassination of Trujillo in 1961, by delving into the lives and motives of each of the participants.

03:15 Funny Ha Ha

American drama from 2002 with Kate Dollenmayer, Mark Herlehy, Christian Rudder. Director: Andrew Bujalski. (90) When you graduate college you easily sashay into the world of adulthood, start a career and get serious - right? Wrong. Marnie has left college but not her bad taste in men and she can't seem to find a permanent job. It would be sad if it weren't so funny. Winner of the Someone to Watch-Award at the Independent Spirit Awards.

05:00 Jellyfish

Israeli drama from 2007 with Sarah Adler, Tsipor Aizen, Bruria Albek. Director: Shira Geffen. (77) The story of three very different women living in Tel Aviv whose lives intertwines and creates a unique portrayal of a modern Israeli life. Winner of the Golden Camera and the SACD Screenwriting Award at The Cannes Film Festival.

2010-02-23 - Tuesday

07:00 Made in Paris

French drama from 2006 with Edouard Baer, Geraldine Pailhas, Marina de Van. Director: Pascal Bonitzer. (90) One morning, Diane discovers that Hermann, the love of her life, is about to publish a book by her ex lover in which he reveals their entire past. Another morning, Herman bumps into his ex girlfriend Anne who is still very much in love with him though he left her for Diane.

09:00 The Guys

American drama from 2002 with Sigourney Weaver, Anthony LaPaglia, Irene Walsh. Director: Jim Simpson. (80) In the aftermath of 9/11 Joan, a veteran journalist, helps the FDNY captain Nick to write obituaries for the 8 men from his crew that died in the tragedy. Joan interviews Nick and together they find the words to honour each fallen man. Adapted from a play by Anne Nelson.

11:00 The Moguls

American comedy from 2005 with Jeff Bridges, Tim Blake Nelson, Joe Pantoliano. Director: Michael Traeger. (105) Andy is a nice guy down on luck who decides to change his destiny in life by making a porno movie together with his loser friends. With characteristic enthusiasm, Andy then inspires his small community to come together to live their dream. A touching story about bettering yourself against all odds - in the most unconventional of ways!

13:00 Jellyfish

Israeli drama from 2007 with Sarah Adler, Tsipor Aizen, Bruria Albek. Director: Shira Geffen. (77) The story of three very different women living in Tel Aviv whose lives intertwines and creates a unique portrayal of a modern Israeli life. Winner of the Golden Camera and the SACD Screenwriting Award at The Cannes Film Festival.

15:00 Funny Ha Ha

American drama from 2002 with Kate Dollenmayer, Mark Herlehy, Christian Rudder. Director: Andrew Bujalski. (90) When you graduate college you easily sashay into the world of adulthood, start a career and get serious - right? Wrong. Marnie has left college but not her bad taste in men and she can't seem to find a permanent job. It would be sad if it weren't so funny. Winner of the Someone to Watch-Award at the Independent Spirit Awards.

17:00 Scenes of a Sexual Nature

British comedy from 2006 with Ewan McGregor, Hugh Bonneville, Gina McKee. Director: Ed Blum. (88) Set on a beautiful day in Hampstead Heath, North London, where seven couples spend an afternoon enjoying the sun and discussing their romantic and erotic relationship ordeals. Despite the wonderful setting and lovely weather however, not all of them end up having the best of times.

19:00 Mad Love

Spanish drama from 2001 with Pilar López de Ayala, Daniele Liotti, Rosana Pastor. Director: Vicente Aranda. (115) The true story of "Juana the Mad" and her turbulent marriage with Archduke Philip of Brussels whom she was arranged to marry at the age of 16. The two had never met before, but an instant mutual attraction led to a fruitful marriage, later down the line however, Philip is revealed to be a hopeless womanizer which gradually pushes Juana closer to a delirious state of madness.

21:00 Kidulthood

British drama from 2006 with Amiran Amiranashvili, Red Madrell, Noel Clarke. Director: Menhaj Huda. (87) Fifteen year-old Trifle from West London, finds himself trapped in between the conflicting worlds of his friends, the girl he likes and the draw of his powerful and dangerous uncle. Trifle must choose between the path that he knows is right and a life of guns, drugs and violence that he has come to know only too well.

23:00 The Banishment

Russian drama from 2007 with Konstantin Lavronenko, Aleksandr Baluyev, Maria Bonnevie. Director: Andrei Zvyagintsev. (150) Alex moves with his wife Vera and their children to his father's old house on the countryside. As the family settles into to their new home, Vera makes a shocking confession which sets in motion a chain of events that inevitably will lead to tragedy. Awarded Best Actor (Konstantin Lavronenko) at the Cannes Film Festival 2007.

01:30 9 Songs

British drama from 2004 with Kieran O'Brien, Margo Stilley, Huw Bunford. Director: Michael Winterbottom. (66) Matt is a scientist who during an expedition to the South Pole looks back on a love affair he had with a free spirited American girl. He recalls meals and bits of conversation but mostly the 9 concerts they shared and the passionate lovemaking that followed.

03:00 Red Dust

British drama from 2004 with Hilary Swank, Chiwetel Ejofor, Jamie Bartlett. Director: Tom Hopper. (110) Devoted human rights lawyer Sarah Barcant returns to her home in South Africa to represent Alex Mapondo, a black political rights activist who was tortured by a white South African police officer. Soon however, Barcant realises that the only thing more dangerous than standing up for your beliefs is to discover the truth...

05:00 Being Jacques Chirac

French documentary from 2006 with Didier Gustin, Jacques Chirac, Tony Blair. Director: Karl Zéro & Michel Royer. (90)
Since 1967, Jacques Chirac has appeared everyday on television: millions of hours of automatic gestures, jerky speeches and feverish cavalcades. Karl Zero and Michel Royer explored forty years of footage and have made the President tell (through the voice of an imitator) the meaning of this inexhaustible quest of power.

2010-02-24 - Wednesday

07:00 Mad Love

Spanish drama from 2001 with Pilar López de Ayala, Daniele Liotti, Rosana Pastor. Director: Vicente Aranda. (115) The true story of "Juana the Mad" and her turbulent marriage with Archduke Philip of Brussels whom she was arranged to marry at the age of 16. The two had never met before, but an instant mutual attraction led to a fruitful marriage, later down the line however, Philip is revealed to be a hopeless womanizer which gradually pushes Juana closer to a delirious state of madness.

09:00 Scenes of a Sexual Nature

British comedy from 2006 with Ewan McGregor, Hugh Bonneville, Gina McKee. Director: Ed Blum. (88) Set on a beautiful day in Hampstead Heath, North London, where seven couples spend an afternoon enjoying the sun and discussing their romantic and erotic relationship ordeals. Despite the wonderful setting and lovely weather however, not all of them end up having the best of times.

11:00 The Banishment

Russian drama from 2007 with Konstantin Lavronenko, Aleksandr Baluyev, Maria Bonnevie. Director: Andrei Zvyagintsev. (150) Alex moves with his wife Vera and their children to his father's old house on the countryside. As the family settles into to their new home, Vera makes a shocking confession which sets in motion a chain of events that inevitably will lead to tragedy. Awarded Best Actor (Konstantin Lavronenko) at the Cannes Film Festival 2007.

13:30 Kidulthood

British drama from 2006 with Amiran Amiranashvili, Red Madrell, Noel Clarke. Director: Menhaj Huda. (87) Fifteen year-old Trifle from West London, finds himself trapped in between the conflicting worlds of his friends, the girl he likes and the draw of his powerful and dangerous uncle. Trifle must choose between the path that he knows is right and a life of guns, drugs and violence that he has come to know only too well.

15:00 Being Jacques Chirac

French documentary from 2006 with Didier Gustin, Jacques Chirac, Tony Blair. Director: Karl Zéro & Michel Royer. (90) Since 1967, Jacques Chirac has appeared everyday on television: millions of hours of automatic gestures, jerky speeches and feverish cavalcades. Karl Zero and Michel Royer explored forty years of footage and have made the President tell (through the voice of an imitator) the meaning of this inexhaustible quest of power.

17:00 Red Dust

British drama from 2004 with Hilary Swank, Chiwetel Ejofor, Jamie Bartlett. Director: Tom Hopper. (110) Devoted human rights lawyer Sarah Barcant returns to her home in South Africa to represent Alex Mapondo, a black political rights activist who was tortured by a white South African police officer. Soon however, Barcant realises that the only thing more dangerous than standing up for your beliefs is to discover the truth...

19:00 All or Nothing

British drama from 2002 with Timothy Spall, Lesley Manville, Alison Garland. Director: Mike Leigh. (122) Phil and Penny are a lower middle-class couple who struggle to get by; he drives a cab and she is a grocery-store cashier. Their relationship is empty and their love seems to have run dry until one day when a sudden tragedy brings them together again.

21:15 Sweet and Lowdown

American drama from 1999 with Sean Penn, Samantha Morton, Uma Thurman. Director: Woody Allen. (91) Emmet Ray is a 1930s jazz guitarist considered to be one of the finest musicians ever. But off-stage he is a slacker, throwing his money away and having affairs with every woman that comes in his way. When he meets Hattie, a shy, mute woman who loves his music, he falls for her but his arrogance and inability to be faithful makes the relationship difficult.

23:00 Hometown Blue

French comedy from 1999 with Florence Vignon, Mathilde Seignier, Antoine Chappey. Director: Stéphane Brizé. (97) Solange, a traffic warden leading the quiet life in a provincial town, becomes painfully aware of her dull existence after spending a night out with an old friend who's in town to sign her new book. Solange suddenly finds her husband boring, her job degrading and realises that her life will pass her by unless she does something about it.

01:00 Dust

British western from 2001 with Joseph Fiennes, David Wenham, Adrian Lester. Director: Milcho Manchevski. (119) In modern day New York, an elderly lady gets the better of a young burglar and decides to tell him of a time when her hoarded gold coins were used to buy bullets for Balkan revolutionaries. The story then shifts to the American West at the turn of the century where two outlaw brothers fall in love with the same woman.

03:00 Guilty

French crime from 2008 with H el ene Filli eres, J er mie Renier, Amira Casar. Director: Laetitia Masson. (102) When Mr Kaplan is found dead with a kitchen knife in his back, all eyes turn to the maid, but when the widow reveals that her husband was incapable of giving her children, all eyes turn to her. Beneath this passionate crime, a detective will discover that love can turn everyone, including possibly himself, into a murderer.

05:00 Whatever Happened to Harold Smith?

British comedy from 1999 with Tom Courtenay, Michael Legge, Laura Fraser. Director: Peter Hewitt. (91) Set in 1970's Yorkshire where teenager Vince Smith is finding life pretty tough as he is infatuated by his colleague, Joanna, yet totally incapable of approaching her. The events take a serious turn however, when Vince's father Harold becomes a minor celebrity by showing off his psychic powers

2010-02-25 - Thursday

07:00 Sweet and Lowdown

American drama from 1999 with Sean Penn, Samantha Morton, Uma Thurman. Director: Woody Allen. (91) Emmet Ray is a 1930s jazz guitarist considered to be one of the finest musicians ever. But off-stage he is a slacker, throwing his money away and having affairs with every woman that comes in his way. When he meets Hattie, a shy, mute woman who loves his music, he falls for her but his arrogance and inability to be faithful makes the relationship difficult.

09:00 All or Nothing

British drama from 2002 with Timothy Spall, Lesley Manville, Alison Garland. Director: Mike Leigh. (122) Phil and Penny are a lower middle-class couple who struggle to get by; he drives a cab and she is a grocery-store cashier. Their relationship is empty and their love seems to have run dry until one day when a sudden tragedy brings them together again.

11:15 Hometown Blue

French comedy from 1999 with Florence Vignon, Mathilde Seignier, Antoine Chappey. Director: Stéphane Brizé. (97) Solange, a traffic warden leading the quiet life in a provincial town, becomes painfully aware of her dull existence after spending a night out with an old friend who's in town to sign her new book. Solange suddenly finds her husband boring, her job degrading and realises that her life will pass her by unless she does something about it.

13:00 Whatever Happened to Harold Smith?

British comedy from 1999 with Tom Courtenay, Michael Legge, Laura Fraser. Director: Peter Hewitt. (91) Set in 1970's Yorkshire where teenager Vince Smith is finding life pretty tough as he is infatuated by his colleague, Joanna, yet totally incapable of approaching her. The events take a serious turn however, when Vince's father Harold becomes a minor celebrity by showing off his psychic powers

15:00 Guilty

French crime from 2008 with H el ene Filli eres, J er mie Renier, Amira Casar. Director: Laetitia Masson. (102) When Mr Kaplan is found dead with a kitchen knife in his back, all eyes turn to the maid, but when the widow reveals that her husband was incapable of giving her children, all eyes turn to her. Beneath this passionate crime, a detective will discover that love can turn everyone, including possibly himself, into a murderer.

17:00 The Emperor's New Clothes

British comedy from 2001 with Ian Holm, Iben Hjejle, Tim McInnerny. Director: Alan Taylor. (105) Brittisk komedi fr an 2001. Historien s ager att Napoleon Bonaparte dog i exil p a  n St. Helena. Men gjorde han verkligen det? 1821 smider ett hemligt n tverk av Napoleonanh ngare en listig plan: Kejsaren ska  terv anda till Paris och en dubbelg ngare ska ta hans plats i exil p a  n. Men n r en viktig detalj missas, finner sig den forne kejsaren i Paris, ensam och utan v anner, tills dagen d  han m ter en vacker  nka. Regi: Alan Taylor (105).

19:00 06/05

Dutch thriller from 2004 with Thijs R mer, Tara Elders, Cahit  lmez. Director: Theo Van Gogh. (116) Political conspiracy and dangerous power games lie at the heart of a high profile assassination. Reporter, Jim de Booy, stumbles into the investigation that puts his life, and the lives of others at risk. Based upon the bestselling book by Tomas Ross.

21:00 Dust

British western from 2001 with Joseph Fiennes, David Wenham, Adrian Lester. Director: Milcho Manchevski. (119) In modern day New York, an elderly lady gets the better of a young burglar and decides to tell him of a time when her hoarded gold coins were used to buy bullets for Balkan revolutionaries. The story then shifts to the American West at the turn of the century where two outlaw brothers fall in love with the same woman.

23:00 Some Voices

British drama from 2000 with Daniel Craig, David Morrissey, Kelly McDonald. Director: Simon Cellan Jones. (97) When Ray is discharged from a psychiatric hospital where he has been treated for schizophrenia, his devoted brother Pete decides to take him home. Pete tries hard to keep his brother on his medication but when Ray meets a girl, things get complicated and the two are forced to reevaluate their relationship.

01:00 Errance

French drama from 2003 with Laetitia Casta, Benoit Magmiel, Matt eo Tardito. Director: Damien Odoul. (105) This film follows the breakdown of a family over three time periods starting out in 1968 when French housewife Lou decides to leave her alcoholic husband Jacques shortly after giving birth to their son. Jacques manages to persuade her to stay and makes a promise that he will clean up his act - a promise which turns out to be hard to keep as he a few years later falls back into old habits.

03:00 The Acid House

British drama from 1998 with Ewen Bremner, Stephen McCole, Kevin McKidd. Director: Paul McGuigan. (111) Three short films adapted from a short story collection by Trainspotting author Irvine Welsh. In "The Granton Star Cause" amateur footballer Boab has an exceptionally bad day. In "A Soft Touch" a young family father gets his life disrupted by a psychotic neighbour and finally in "The Acid House" drugged low life Coco experiences a body swap with the infant son of a self involved yuppie couple.

05:00 Nico and Dani

Spanish comedy from 2000 with Fernando Ramallo, Jordi Vilches, Marieta Orozco. Director: Cesc Gay. (105) Dani and Nico are two teenage boys who, when left alone in Dani's parents' summer home on the south coast of Spain, go about the serious business of boozing, partying, taking drugs, and, hopefully, getting laid. As the week progresses events take an unusual turn and soon Dani realises that he is in fact attracted to Nico.

2010-02-26 - Friday

07:00 06/05

Dutch thriller from 2004 with Thijs Römer, Tara Elders, Cahit Ölmez. Director: Theo Van Gogh. (116) Political conspiracy and dangerous power games lie at the heart of a high profile assassination. Reporter, Jim de Booy, stumbles into the investigation that puts his life, and the lives of others at risk. Based upon the bestselling book by Tomas Ross.

09:00 The Emperor's New Clothes

British comedy from 2001 with Ian Holm, Iben Hjejle, Tim McInnerny. Director: Alan Taylor. (105) Brittisk komedi från 2001. Historien säger att Napoleon Bonaparte dog i exil på ön St. Helena. Men gjorde han verkligen det? 1821 smider ett hemligt nätverk av Napoleonanhängare en listig plan: Kejsaren ska återvända till Paris och en dubbelgångare ska ta hans plats i exil på ön. Men när en viktig detalj missas, finner sig den forne kejsaren i Paris, ensam och utan vänner, tills dagen då han möter en vacker änka. Regi: Alan Taylor (105).

11:00 Errance

French drama from 2003 with Laetitia Casta, Benoit Magmiel, Mattéo Tardito. Director: Damien Odoul. (105) This film follows the breakdown of a family over three time periods starting out in 1968 when French housewife Lou decides to leave her alcoholic husband Jacques shortly after giving birth to their son. Jacques manages to persuade her to stay and makes a promise that he will clean up his act - a promise which turns out to be hard to keep as he a few years later falls back into old habits.

13:00 Some Voices

British drama from 2000 with Daniel Craig, David Morrissey, Kelly McDonald. Director: Simon Cellan Jones. (97) When Ray is discharged from a psychiatric hospital where he has been treated for schizophrenia, his devoted brother Pete decides to take him home. Pete tries hard to keep his brother on his medication but when Ray meets a girl, things get complicated and the two are forced to reevaluate their relationship.

15:00 Nico and Dani

Spanish comedy from 2000 with Fernando Ramallo, Jordi Vilches, Marieta Orozco. Director: Cesc Gay. (105) Dani and Nico are two teenage boys who, when left alone in Dani's parents' summer home on the south coast of Spain, go about the serious business of boozing, partying, taking drugs, and, hopefully, getting laid. As the week progresses events take an unusual turn and soon Dani realises that he is in fact attracted to Nico.

17:00 Swimming Pool

French thriller from 2003 with Charlotte Rampling, Ludivine Sagnier, Charles Dance. Director: François Ozon. (105) Best-selling English author Sarah Morton accepts an invitation to her publisher's home in Provence and travels there with the intention to work and relax. Soon however, the sudden arrival of her publisher's rather odd daughter, Julie, will come to disturb Morton's tranquillity. Awarded Best Actress (Charlotte Rampling) at the European Film Awards.

19:00 The Match

British comedy from 1999 with Max Beesley, Ivan Reitman, James Cosmo. Director: Mick Davis. (92) In a single street Scottish town an annual football game is coming up. The match will settle a 100 year old conflict between the original owners of the town's only two pubs; Benny's Bar and Le Bistro. The odds are not looking good for Benny's bar since their team has lost 99 years in a row.

21:00 The Blind Sunflowers

Spanish drama from 2008 with Maribel Verdú, Javier Cámara, Raúl Arévalo. Director: José Luis Cuerda. (98) Set in 1940's Orense, North Spain, where Elena is leading a seemingly normal life as a caring mother to her son and daughter. Unbeknown to anyone apart from her immediate family however, is the fact that Elena is hiding her own husband and a republican school teacher in their home since the two both became victims of ruthless ideological persecution following the civil war.

23:00 The Acid House

British drama from 1998 with Ewen Bremner, Stephen McCole, Kevin McKidd. Director: Paul McGuigan. (111) Three short films adapted from a short story collection by Trainspotting author Irvine Welsh. In "The Granton Star Cause" amateur footballer Boab has an exceptionally bad day. In "A Soft Touch" a young family father gets his life disrupted by a psychotic neighbour and finally in "The Acid House" drugged low life Coco experiences a body swap with the infant son of a self involved yuppie couple.

01:00 Black Irish

American drama from 2007 with Michael Angarano, Brendan Gleeson, Tom Guiry. Director: Brad Gann. (95) 16-year old Cole is growing up in a dysfunctional Irish-Catholic family in Boston. His brother has turned to crime and his father is sinking deeper into depression while his pregnant sister is being sent away by his mother who only cares about protecting their image as the "perfect family". The only thing that keeps Cole going is his passion for baseball.

03:00 The Moguls

American comedy from 2005 with Jeff Bridges, Tim Blake Nelson, Joe Pantoliano. Director: Michael Traeger. (105) Andy is a nice guy down on luck who decides to change his destiny in life by making a porno movie together with his loser friends. With characteristic enthusiasm, Andy then inspires his small community to come together to live their dream. A touching story about bettering yourself against all odds - in the most unconventional of ways!

05:00 Lantana

Australian drama from 2001 with Anthony LaPaglia, Rachael Blake, Kerry Armstrong. Director: Ray Lawrence. (115) Valerie Somers is a psychiatrist whose homosexual client complains over the fact that his lover is married and won't break up with his wife. Valerie has a troubled marriage herself after the death of her child and soon she starts suspecting that her client is actually talking about her own husband John.

2010-02-27 - Saturday

07:00 The Match

British comedy from 1999 with Max Beesley, Ivan Reitman, James Cosmo. Director: Mick Davis. (92) In a single street Scottish town an annual football game is coming up. The match will settle a 100 year old conflict between the original owners of the town's only two pubs; Benny's Bar and Le Bistro. The odds are not looking good for Benny's bar since their team has lost 99 years in a row.

09:00 Swimming Pool

French thriller from 2003 with Charlotte Rampling, Ludivine Sagnier, Charles Dance. Director: François Ozon. (105) Best-selling English author Sarah Morton accepts an invitation to her publisher's home in Provence and travels there with the intention to work and relax. Soon however, the sudden arrival of her publisher's rather odd daughter, Julie, will come to disturb Morton's tranquillity. Awarded Best Actress (Charlotte Rampling) at the European Film Awards.

11:00 Black Irish

American drama from 2007 with Michael Angarano, Brendan Gleeson, Tom Guiry. Director: Brad Gann. (95) 16-year old Cole is growing up in a dysfunctional Irish-Catholic family in Boston. His brother has turned to crime and his father is sinking deeper into depression while his pregnant sister is being sent away by his mother who only cares about protecting their image as the "perfect family". The only thing that keeps Cole going is his passion for baseball.

13:00 The Blind Sunflowers

Spanish drama from 2008 with Maribel Verdú, Javier Cámara, Raúl Arévalo. Director: José Luis Cuerda. (98) Set in 1940's Orense, North Spain, where Elena is leading a seemingly normal life as a caring mother to her son and daughter. Unbeknown to anyone apart from her immediate family however, is the fact that Elena is hiding her own husband and a republican school teacher in their home since the two both became victims of ruthless ideological persecution following the civil war.

15:00 Lantana

Australian drama from 2001 with Anthony LaPaglia, Rachael Blake, Kerry Armstrong. Director: Ray Lawrence. (115) Valerie Somers is a psychiatrist whose homosexual client complains over the fact that his lover is married and won't break up with his wife. Valerie has a troubled marriage herself after the death of her child and soon she starts suspecting that her client is actually talking about her own husband John.

17:00 The Moguls

American comedy from 2005 with Jeff Bridges, Tim Blake Nelson, Joe Pantoliano. Director: Michael Traeger. (105) Andy is a nice guy down on luck who decides to change his destiny in life by making a porno movie together with his loser friends. With characteristic enthusiasm, Andy then inspires his small community to come together to live their dream. A touching story about bettering yourself against all odds - in the most unconventional of ways!

19:00 Twin Peaks - Fire Walk With Me

American drama from 1992 with Ray Wise, Sheryl Lee, Mädchen Amick. Director: David Lynch. (129) A little quiet town tucked in a valley. Population : 51,201. A mysterious death and a charade like inquiry. A diary kept secret, a pact, a malevolent other-self and a ring. Dreams, hallucinations, forebodings. This is the world of Twin Peaks: Fire Walk With Me.

21:15 Half Nelson

American drama from 2006 with Ryan Gosling, Shareeka Epps, Jeff Lima. Director: Ryan Fleck. (105) Inner-city junior high school teacher Dan Dunne delivers inspiring lectures every day in class but finds it harder and harder to hide his serious drug abuse. One day he is caught smoking crack by his 13 year-old student Dray and the two develop an unexpected friendship which turns out to have a great impact in both their lives.

23:00 Trust

British comedy from 1990 with Adrienne Shelley, Martin Donovan, Edie Falco. Director: Hal Hartley. (105) Maria, a self-centred teenage brat, becomes pregnant by her un-loving quarterback boyfriend - a fact which gives her father a fatal heart attack. Disowned by her devastated mum, dumped by her boyfriend, and shunned by her friends, Maria wanders the streets and crosses paths with Matthew, a rowdy disillusioned computer engineer with a vicious temper. These two exiles fall in love and set about trying to become a normal suburban couple. Awarded with the Waldo Salt Screenwriting Award at the Sundance Film Festival 1991.

01:00 X-Plicit Films

French drama from 2008 with "William ", "Rachel ", Laureen Langendorff. Director: Laetitia Masson, Helena Noguerra, Mélanie Laurent, Caroline Loeb and Lola Doillon. (90) As a response to a gap in the market, five female directors, each recognized for their artistic eye in the world of cinema, were given the opportunity to shoot a sex scene striving to pose legitimate questions about female sexuality.

03:00 Talk Radio

American drama from 1988 with Eric Bogosian, Leslie Hope, John C. McGinley. Director: Oliver Stone. (105) Barry Champlain is a controversial radio talk show host whose provocative views and swaggering attitude has not only made him very popular amongst his listeners but also the main target of a militant right-wing hate group. Inspired by the destiny of real life radio host Alan Berg and awarded with the Silver Berlin Bear at the Berlin Film Festival in 1989.

05:00 The Pillow Book

British drama from 1996 with Vivian Wu, Yoshi Oida, Ewan McGregor. Director: Peter Greenaway. (135) When Nagiko was a little girl her father, a calligrapher, would carefully paint a poem on her face, as her aunt read to her from The Pillow Book. As a grown up, Nagiako seeks a lover who will indulge her passion for literature by writing on her naked body and eventually she finds happiness with an Englishman who persuades her to use his body as paper for her poetry.

2010-02-28 - Sunday

07:15 Half Nelson

American drama from 2006 with Ryan Gosling, Shareeka Epps, Jeff Lima. Director: Ryan Fleck. (105) Inner-city junior high school teacher Dan Dunne delivers inspiring lectures every day in class but finds it harder and harder to hide his serious drug abuse. One day he is caught smoking crack by his 13 year-old student Dray and the two develop an unexpected friendship which turns out to have a great impact in both their lives.

09:00 Twin Peaks - Fire Walk With Me

American drama from 1992 with Ray Wise, Sheryl Lee, Mädchen Amick. Director: David Lynch. (129) A little quiet town tucked in a valley. Population : 51,201. A mysterious death and a charade like inquiry. A diary kept secret, a pact, a malevolent other-self and a ring. Dreams, hallucinations, forebodings. This is the world of Twin Peaks: Fire Walk With Me.

11:15 Trust

British comedy from 1990 with Adrienne Shelley, Martin Donovan, Edie Falco. Director: Hal Hartley. (105) Maria, a self-centred teenage brat, becomes pregnant by her un-loving quarterback boyfriend - a fact which gives her father a fatal heart attack. Disowned by her devastated mum, dumped by her boyfriend, and shunned by her friends, Maria wanders the streets and crosses paths with Matthew, a rowdy disillusioned computer engineer with a vicious temper. These two exiles fall in love and set about trying to become a normal suburban couple. Awarded with the Waldo Salt Screenwriting Award at the Sundance Film Festival 1991.

13:00 The Pillow Book

British drama from 1996 with Vivian Wu, Yoshi Oida, Ewan McGregor. Director: Peter Greenaway. (135) When Nagiko was a little girl her father, a calligrapher, would carefully paint a poem on her face, as her aunt read to her from The Pillow Book. As a grown up, Nagiako seeks a lover who will indulge her passion for literature by writing on her naked body and eventually she finds happiness with an Englishman who persuades her to use his body as paper for her poetry.

15:15 Talk Radio

American drama from 1988 with Eric Bogosian, Leslie Hope, John C. McGinley. Director: Oliver Stone. (105) Barry Champlain is a controversial radio talk show host whose provocative views and swaggering attitude has not only made him very popular amongst his listeners but also the main target of a militant right-wing hate group. Inspired by the destiny of real life radio host Alan Berg and awarded with the Silver Berlin Bear at the Berlin Film Festival in 1989.

17:00 Punk's Not Dead

American documentary from 2006 with The Ramones, My Chemical Romance, Simple Plan. Director: Susan Dynner. (96) This film portrays the evolution of punk music, from its anarchic origin as a social movement to its use as a corporate marketing tool and from its breakthrough in the mainstream popular to its reinvention in present day's underground scene.

19:00 Code Unknown

French drama from 2000 with Juliette Binoche, Thierry Neuvic, Josef Bierbichler. Director: Michael Haneke. (117) Paris. A busy boulevard. Someone throws a crumpled piece of paper into the outstretched hands of a beggar woman. This is the bond which, for a short moment, links the trajectories of several very different characters. Winner of The Prize of the Ecumenical Jury at the Cannes Film Festival.

21:00 The Piano Teacher

French drama from 2001 with Isabelle Huppert, Annie Girardot, Benoît Cohen. Director: Michael Haneke. (125) Erika is a highly respected piano teacher at the Conservatory in Vienna with strong masochistic sexual needs. Her icy personality however, has left her so far without husband or lover but one day Erika realises that one of her students is trying to seduce her. Awarded Best Actress (Isabelle Huppert), Best Actor (Benoît Magimel) and with the Grand Prize of the Jury at the Cannes Film Festival as well as Best Actress at the European Film Awards 2001.

23:15 The European Film Awards 2009: From Bochum

German award show from 2009. (90) Top nominees for The European Film Awards 2009 include for Best Feature; Fish Tank, Let the Right One In, A Prophet, The Reader, Slumdog Millionaire and The White Ribbon. Among the Best Actresses and Actors are Charlotte Gainsbourg, Kate Winslet, Katie Jarvis, David Kross, Dev Patel and Moritz Bleibtreu nominated. Among the evening's distinguished film guests are British director Ken Loach, recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award as well as French actress Isabelle Huppert, recipient of the Award for European Film Academy Achievement in World Cinema 2009. The 1,400 guests at the 22 European Film Awards take their seats at Bochum's legendary Jahrhunderthalle (Century Hall), a former gas power station of the steel mills, they will be welcomed by German comedy star Aneke Engelke, the host of the evening. She is known in the international film world for hosting the opening of the Berlin International Film Festival for several years. On stage with her is Bauhause, pioneers of audiovisual composition, with an audio video performance mixing video, film and music.

01:00 Travelling Light

Australian drama from 2003 with Pia Miranda, Sasha Horler, Brett Stiller. Director: Kathryn Millard. (90) Adelaide, 1971. 21 year old Leanne yearns for a life that she can only see through the lens of her camera. Her sister Bronwyn, stuck in a dead-end marriage, feels the world closing in. One day however, Lou, a charismatic beat poet, steps off a plane from America and into their lives.

03:00 Celebrity

American comedy from 1998 with Kenneth Branagh, Charlize Theron, Leonardo Di Caprio. Director: Woody Allen. (109) Lee Simons is an unsuccessful novelist and feature writer who immerses himself into the world of celebrities as a way of dealing with his midlife crisis. Through professional encounters, as well as sexual interludes, Lee soon finds that people's public appearances and their private lives have little to do with each other.

05:00 Hey Good Looking!

French comedy from 2006 with Michele Laroque, Aure Atika, Valérie Benguigui. Director: Lisa Azuelos. (85) Lisa, Alice, Léa and Nina are four Jewish women who are all trying hard to manage their chaotic family situations, busy careers and tumultuous love lives. Their biggest challenge however, is to stay true to themselves.